APPENDIX No. 3.

DEPARTMENT OF CITY CONTROLLER,

Philadelphia, September 1, 1879.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—In compliance with the requirements of law, I herewith submit the Annual Detailed Statement, containing the estimated receipts, expenditures and liabilities of every kind, from August 1, 1879, to December 31, 1879, inclusive; and for the next fiscal year, 1880. The calculations for tax-rates are based on the return of the Board of Revision for the year 1880. By reference to the statement it will be found that the Act of Assembly of June 11, 1879, authorizing Councils to fix a tax-rate, has been followed. As there seems, however, to be a conflict between this Act and the Funding Act of the same date, I have made two calculations, one with the amount of $8,712,229.73, outstanding June 11, 1879, funded, and one funding $10,000,000.

The Act approved June 11, 1879, authorizing cities of the first class to levy and fix a tax-rate, provides:

“The amount of tax-moneys collectable during the year for which such tax shall have been levied, shall be ascertained by deducting from the gross amount yielded by said tax-rate, the average of such proportion of the annual tax levy for each of the five years immediately preceding as shall remain uncollected at the end of each of the said years, and the tax-moneys collectable during the current year shall, with the average income from sources other than from current tax-moneys (exclusive of sinking fund receipts) such average of income to be determined by ascertaining the average income during the five years immediately preceding, be set apart for the extinguishment of the floating indebtedness other than that which may be outstanding at the passage of the Act, which the City Controller may estimate to be outstanding upon the first of January following, for the payment of all lawful obligations due by the City during the fiscal year, commencing January 1, next ensuing, and for such expenses of the municipal government as may be authorized by Councils."

The floating indebtedness, other than that which may be outstanding at the passage of the Act, will consist of the warrants issued between June 11, 1879, and December 31, 1879, or estimated $2,077,174.05, leaving the remaining floating indebtedness, at the passage of the Act, $8,712,229.73 to be funded.

The Act of June 11, 1879, "To authorize cities of the first class to fund their present floating indebtedness," provides: "That the Councils of the cities of the first class be, and they are hereby authorized, to fund the present floating indebtedness of said cities to the extent of $10,000,000."

With $8,712,229.73 funded, a tax-rate of $2.75 will yield what the departments ask for.

With $10,000,000.00 funded, a tax-rate of $2.40 will yield what the departments ask for.

With $8,712,229.73 funded, a tax-rate of $2.00 will yield $5,114,418.03 for the departments, or 41 per cent. less than asked for.

With $10,000,000 funded, a tax-rate of $2.00 will yield $7,191,592.08 for the departments, or 17½ per cent less than asked for.

Very respectfully submitted,

ROBERT E. PATTISON,

City Controller.

* There seems to be a conflict between the provision in the Act of June 11, 1879, regulating the appropriations and the funding bill of the same date. The bill regulating appropriations directs the above deduction of $2,077,174.05 out of tax moneys collectable during the year, leaving the floating indebtedness, June 11, 1879, at the passage of the act, $8,712,229.73, while the funding bill authorizes Councils to fund the present floating indebtedness to the extent of $10,000,000. I have, therefore, made two calculations, one as above, with the $2,077,174.05, funding $8,712,229.73, and one following, funding $10,000,000.

APPENDIX No. 4.

OFFICE OF PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD CO.,

Philadelphia, August 14, 1879.

To the Select and Common Councils

of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, in pursuance of legislative authority, have considered the expediency of constructing a line of railroad, from its main line in West Philadelphia, north of Market street, eastwardly into the business section of the City, and to cross the river Schuylkill therewith by a bridge that shall be exclusively devoted to railroad purposes.

They have authorized the construction of so much of this line as will extend from the main line in West Philadelphia to such point as may be found most eligible for a central passenger station, on ground that is now or may hereafter be owned by the company in the vicinity of their present freight station at Market and Fifteenth streets, and in preparing the plans therefor have endeavored to avoid, as far as practicable, the necessity of occupying the public streets of the City, by procuring at large cost a right of way, for the greater part of the distance, through private property.

In constructing this projected railroad it is the desire of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to act in concert with the authorities of the City of Philadelphia, so that when completed it shall conserve the convenience of the public, without interfering with the use of any of the public highways.

Being satisfied that the interests of the City of Philadelphia and the necessities of the public at large require the location of both freight and passenger stations for City purposes in closer proximity to business centres—the advantages of which will readily suggest themselves—and being convinced that the time has arrived when the execution of such a plan as now projected is imperatively demanded by the public, the cordial co-operation of the Select and Common Councils is respectfully and earnestly solicited.

Respectfully, &c.,

G. B. ROBERTS,

First Vice-President.

APPENDIX No. 5.

RESOLUTION

Of request to the City Controller.

Resolved by the Common Council of the City of Philadelphia, That the City Controller be, and is, hereby requested to prepare for the use of Councils a printed list of the names and salaries (and in whose names the warrants are drawn) of all clerks or assistants of those Departments of the City, whose salaries were previously fixed by the "late" Salary Board, and report the same.

RESOLUTION

Of request to the Park Commission relative to removal of the Permanent Exhibition Building.

Resolved by the Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia, That the Park Commission be, and they are, hereby requested to rescind their action in reference to the removal of the Permanent Exhibition Building.

APPENDIX No. 7.

OFFICE OF CHIEF ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR,

Philadelphia, September 3, 1879.

JOS. L. CAVEN, Esq.,

President of Common Council.

DEAR SIR:—It would be of great permanent advantage to Honey Run Sewer to have it extended fifteen feet further, at a cost of five hundred dollars more than the gross limit of the contract. I therefore recommend this extension; the price being thirty-four dollars per lineal foot.

Very respectfully,

SAMUEL L. SMEDLEY,

Chief Engineer and Surveyor.

APPENDIX No. 8.

HEALTH OFFICE,

Philadelphia, September 5, 1879.

To the Select and Common Councils

of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I am directed by the Board of Health to transmit to you the following copy of resolution passed this date, with copy of letter of Health Officer.

Respectfully yours, &c.,

WM. P. TROTH,

Chief Clerk.

Resolved, That the Select and Common Councils be respectfully requested to make an appropriation of five thousand (5,000) dollars to the Board of Health, to be expended under Item 14, for the removal of nuisances, the appropriation to this item for the year 1879 having been almost entirely exhausted.

HEALTH OFFICE,

Philadelphia, September 4, 1879.

To the Board of Health.

GENTLEMEN:—The item in our annual appropriation for the abatement of nuisances prejudicial to public health, in amount $10,000, is so far exhausted that I cannot give out any more work to be done, except it be of small cost and imperative necessity.

As I have on hand, under notice, much work to do, and it is continually being added to in a large degree—four months remaining of the current year, of which one, the present one, is a quarantine month—it is necessary that the Board of Health should be placed immediately in funds for the performance of their duty in guarding the public health of our city.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN E. ADDICKS,

Health Officer.

APPENDIX No. 9.

APPENDIX No. 10.

RESOLUTION

To appoint a Special Committee on salaries fixed by the Salary Board.

Resolved by the Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia, That a joint special committee of five members from each chamber be appointed to consider the communication of the City Controller submitting list of officers whose salaries have been fixed by the Salary Board.

APPENDIX No. 11.

Philadelphia, September 12, 1879.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—The Committee on Finance, to whom was referred the communication of the City Controller, submitting a statement of assets and liabilities of the City of Philadelphia for the year 1880, (See Appendix No. 3), respectfully report, that they have referred the same to a Sub-Committee, whose report is hereto appended, and for the reasons contained in said report, submit the annexed ordinance to levy and fix the rate of taxes for the year 1880, at two dollars on the hundred dollars, and recommend its passage.

JOS. J. MARTIN.

Philadelphia, September 12, 1879.

To the Chairman and Members of the Committee on Finance.

GENTLEMEN:—Your Sub-Committee, to whom was referred the annual statement of the City Controller, relative to City finances, and the tax rate for 1880, have given the subject full consideration, and find that the financial operations of the present year are estimated to reduce the floating debt outstanding January 1, 1879, by nearly one hundred and fifty thousand dollars; this, too, in addition to the payment of every obligation of the current year. We also find that the departments are asking for nearly $800,000 more than the amount appropriated to them for this year. We also ascertain, that after estimating the cash payments and receipts prior to December 31, 1879, and appropriating the cash then in the treasury (except that belonging to loans sold), to the payment of warrants, that warrants outstanding at that date (December 31, 1879), will be within the amount authorized to be funded, which we are clearly of the opinion should be funded under the authority of the Act of Assembly of June 11, 1879, so that on the first day of January, 1880, the City would commence with a clear sheet,—clear of every liability (except funded debt), and it is hoped and expected that by reason of commencing the receipt of current taxes on that day that we can thereafter pay as we go; and warrants issued be payable on presentation, a condition long and earnestly hoped for.

We also find that under the Act of June 11, 1879, Councils are required, first, to fix a tax rate, and after ascertaining the nett products thereof to make the appropriations within said nett product, and other receipts. The same Act prescribes the formula to be followed, and, under its workings, we find, first, that if we fund all outstanding warrants up to December 31, 1879, with the proceeds of loan to be sold, and the cash in the treasury, that there will not be any floating debt January 1, 1880. Second, that the lawful obligations of the City for 1880, consisting of interest and state tax on loans, sinking funds, interest and state tax on the loan to be issued to fund the floating debt, and for the payment of the first series of the new loan, due December 31, 1880, will amount to $5,371,474.42. We also find the estimates of the departments for 1880 amount to $8,700,815.73, aggregating $14,072,290.15, as the total amount estimated to maintain the City government for 1880. Under the Act, before referred to, Councils are directed how to ascertain the average income of all sources other than current taxes, and under the law we find the average income of the City from sources other than current taxes to be $4,575,160.55, which deducted from the total estimated amount required, leaves $9,497,129.60 to be provided for by taxation.

The Board of Revision of Taxes return $536,667,834 as the valuation of property liable to taxation in 1880, and a rate of two dollars on that valuation will yield a gross product of $10,305,911.58, from which we are directed by the Act of June 11, 1879, to deduct the average amount of taxes uncollectable in the current year, and after applying the provisions of the law, we find the nett product of this rate to be $7,987,905.95, which, added to the City's income from other sources, makes the total receipts $12,563,066.50 to meet the estimated amount required of $14,072,290.15, showing a deficiency of $1,509,223.65, which will have to be made up either by a higher rate than two dollars or by reducing the departmental expenses to that extent.

We are clearly of the opinion that real estate is not in a condition to bear a greater burden than a rate of two dollars, and we are unanimous in recommending that a rate of two dollars on the hundred dollars of valuation shall be the rate of taxation for 1880, as we are fully convinced that with a close and watchful economy over every department, and a rigid adherence in the discharge of our duty to the interests of the taxpayer, that we can, without detriment to the interests of the City, be able to so reduce the estimates as to bring them within the requirements of the law. We also find a number of balances of special appropriations carried forward on the books from prior years which are of no use whatever, and as they appear on the books to-day they are a charge against the treasury. We recommend that an ordinance be passed repealing the same, and thus discharge the amounts from the books.

The figures herein given you are furnished by the City

Controller, who has very ably assisted the Committee in their examinations.

We also append for your information a detailed statement of the financial condition of the treasury on August 1, 1879, the approximate condition December 31, 1879, and the requirements for 1880, to which we invite your careful examination.

Very respectfully,

JOHN BARDSLEY, Ch'n, GEO. S. GRAHAM,
GEO. A. SMITH, JAMES R. GATES,
EDWARD MATTHEWS, JOHN HUNTER,
JOS. L. CAVEN.

APPENDIX No. 16.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,

Philadelphia, September 18, 1879.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I herewith transmit a communication from James Crutchett, C. E., of Washington, D. C., relative to the introduction and use of atomic steam coal gas.

Very respectfully,

WM. S. STOKLEY,
Mayor.

ATOMIC STEAM COAL GAS,—THE GAS OF THE FUTURE,
BY USE OF WHICH MANY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS CAN BE SAVED PER ANNUM; DOLLARS SAVED ARE DOLLARS GAINED.

To the Honorable WILLIAM S. STOKLEY, Mayor.
The Presidents of the Boards of Council; and Corporation of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—May it please you to allow me again to communicate to you in regard to the introduction and use of atomic steam coal gas, made from coal dust and steam, principally, costing only five to fifteen cents per one thousand cubic feet.

On my first communication to your Honorable Corporation, and offer of the improvements for the benefit of its citizens, the subject was referred to the Joint Councils Committee on Gas, who referred the same to the Gas Trustees; after several meetings thereon, the latter passed a resolution giving me the use of the Gas Works for any experiment or demonstration, providing, that the Trustees be at no cost; stating, also, that as Trustees they were not authorized to change or alter the Gas Works, unless by request, and at the cost of the corporation.

Although I made the improvements, and patented the mode of manufacture of atomic steam coal gas, by the mercy of the Divine; in consequence of the United States Government owing me over two hundred thousand dollars, and not paying me more than twenty-five thousand dollars (which I received under protest); also, from going security for one of my attorneys (a late Secretary of the United States Treasury), to the First National Bank of Washington, my real estate, valued at about two hundred thousand dollars, was sacrificed at sale, at about one-fifth its value, to pay the creditors of said Bank, one of the principal being the present Secretary of the United States Treasury, who purchased the larger amount, with one other, at the forced sacrifice.

These losses rendered me unable to erect proper apparatus to demonstrate the vast benefits of atomic steam coal gas, personally, as I used to do when I lighted Washington City, and other places, and as I might have done by my own works on my property in Washington, had not all been sold. Other scientists, however, among them professors of chemistry, made experiments near New York City, while the subject was before your Honorable Councils, and published the results in several columns of The Engineering and Mining Journal, of New York, over their own signatures, in February, not only confirming my statements generally, but more specifically, stating that the coal dust and steam process demonstrated the cost at from six to eight cents per one thousand cubic feet of gas only. And the well known scientific editor of the Journal says, in the same issue: "We need make no excuse for devoting so much of our space, as we do, to the water-gas question, for assuredly it is one of the most important, in a metallurgical and industrial sense, that has come for many years before the public," &c. Rudolf Wagner, one of the greatest living authorities in chemical technology, says: "Water-gas appears to us to be the illuminating gas of the future."

Professor Morton, President of the Stevens Institute of New Jersey, in addressing the Gas Engineers, at their annual meeting recently, in New York, after showing practical experiments in the Hoboken Institute, on electric lights, their failure, &c., in respect to gas, alludes to atomic steam coal gas, in the following words: "And if the reign of gas coal is to end, it will be only to its near relation, the steam coal, that it will yield its throne," &c.

There are millions of cubic feet now being made daily by parts of the process, at more than twenty generating works, for illumination, and many large metal works, for blast and heating purposes.

I believe the Joint Councils Committee on Gas made no report thereon to the Councils. The subject being of such vast importance to the city, on the first of May last I sent another communication to the Councils thereon, enumerating some of the advantages by the adoption of this cheap gas, and as there are no steam generating apparatus of large capacity at any of the City Gas Works, easily available, and to save steam expense in apparatus, to demonstrate to the corporation the manufacture, saving, and advantages to the city, and its citizens, the largest and most important manufacturing firm in the city authorized me to inform the corporation, that if they desired to erect apparatus to demonstrate atomic steam coal gas at their works, they would afford all the facilities, and charge nothing for the whole steam section supply.

Also, one of the gas engine companies offered to supply and erect a gas engine or engines, to show the gas and its superior advantages as a motive power, so much cheaper and more desirable than steam. These and other liberal free offers and propositions were included in my communication to your honorable corporation on the first day of May last.

Please allow me to state how the same was acted on (for none of the city papers referred to it). The communication was ordered to be read, most of the first page was read, the balance of the pages was passed over and not read, not more than two of the members of the Boards of Council knew the contents thereof, or the liberal offers of the city manufacturers, &c. The subject was then referred to the new Joint Councils Committee on Gas, who met next day; the communication was ordered to be read, the first page was read, the further reading dispensed with, and the same was referred to the Gas Trustees. Thus none of the Joint Committee probably knew of the contents of this important communication. The same being now before the Gas Trustees, and from their former action and statements it is inferred nothing can be done without the direction of your honorable corporation.

The question, therefore, now is, does the corporation wish to know of the benefits which would result to the city, and its citizens, by the adoption and manufacture, use, and blessings of cheap atomic steam coal gas? By the adoption of which, if manufactured and supplied properly to gas consumers, for light alone, at fifty cents per one thousand cubic feet, the citizens would save more than an average of ten thousand dollars per day every day in the year. Also, in addition, for heating purposes and power, at twenty cents per one thousand cubic feet, there would be a further save to the citizens of Philadelphia of more than fifty thousand dollars per day, thus making a saving to those under your care in this city, of over the enormous sum, every year, of more than twenty million dollars per annum in the use of atomic steam coal gas, for light, heat, and power.

The use of gas, generally, as fuel for heat and manufacturing purposes, is only beginning to be appreciated in the United States. In London several large establishments are reported as saving over £800 per annum (one establishment over £1,000 per annum), by the use of gas as fuel, instead of coal.

There was recently a commission appointed by the Gas and Water Managers Association to investigate the working of gas generator furnaces, after which operations, they issued a voluminous and exhaustive report, published in the Journal für Gas beleuchtung, which resulted in demonstrating that with the coal fuel they experimented with, in large quantities and long periods, during which they were engaged therein, that from 70 to 80 per cent. weight of steam added to the coal produced that much additional heat in combustion, at several hundred degrees higher temperature, also caused a more thorough combustion of fuel, avoiding clinker, and more easy working.

I merely quote this, of many others, as corroborating part of the atomic steam coal gas improvements in gas manufacture, which combines the carbonization of hydrogen more perfectly by the atomic process at a much higher temperature, and is therefore the more perfect for fuel, light, and power, according thereto.

The use of gas generally, as fuel for heat, in the house or factory, avoids the handling of coals, ashes, dust, time, labor of heating up, cooling, fire risk, and is more healthy and clean. It has been considered and demonstrated in London, that fuel converted into gas and so used, amounts to seven to one more beneficial than the present use in grates, stoves, furnaces, &c. Therefore as the atomic steam coal gas process utilizes the refuse coal dust to and with hundreds per cent. additional, by making the gases of steam (or water) a fuel in combination therewith, in gaseous and convenient form, for easy, clean, and instant use, the great conveniences and cheapness of it are apparent.

It is found by statistical returns that about eight times as much fuel are used for domestic heat in cities and towns, as for gas illumination. In London and other places where gas costs much less than in Philadelphia, New York, and elsewhere, it is considered generally as ten to twelve tons of fuel for heat to one for gas illumination, winters being colder here, longer, and dwellings less protecting, and gas much higher.

But, in this communication let it be considered as five to one with the consideration of greater comforts and preferences of gas to coal in warming rooms, cooking, &c., at once, by merely turning a gas cock at any time and under all circumstances.

Again. The atomic steam coal gas, as a motor or power, will most positively take the place of steam, at from one-fifth to one-tenth the cost of steam and attendance, whether used for heating purposes, or as a motor for driving engines of any kind, from the sewing machine, factory power, saw or grist mills, road carriage or locomotives, street cars, electric light machines, pumping or mining, pleasure boats or ocean ships, plows, cultivators, mowers or reapers, which will help develop the most noble occupation of man, as designed by the Divine Creator, for the cultivation of the ground, developing the grain and fruits of the earth.

Locomotives and passenger cars will receive compressed gas in cylinders (portable or otherwise), at the depots, stations, or on the routes of travel. Gas cylinders can be supplied in towns and places by wagons or other carriages similar to ale, lager, milk, soda water, &c.; attaching such cylinders to pipes by union joints, &c. Where the gas is supplied at twenty cents per one thousand cubic feet for power, the cost for horse power for ten hours will be only four cents. Where gas is made and supplied near, it can be made and used at a cost of from one to two cents per horse power per day (10 hours), such as at water or gas works, farms, villages, factories, &c.

There are in use at the various steam pumping works, in supplying water for city use, a power of little less than 2000 horses, costing for the fuel, working, and those engaged in connection therewith, about 25 cents per day per horse power of 24 hours. Also, the cost of water power at Fairmount Works, average of over 10 cents per horse power for all pertaining thereto. These costs for city pumping works do not include premises, plant, &c. Then, in connection herewith are the use and waste of water of ten times the amount of water pumped up into reservoirs.

Again. There are steam engines, power in factory, and other uses in the City, of about 26,000 horses, consuming, on an average, 10 lbs of coal per horse power (small engines more per hour and large ones less); but the largest number are of small power comparatively. The 10 hours working these, also 2 hours heating up and cooling off, and waste, will average 120 lbs. of coal per day per horse power, which, with attendance, &c., will cost 30 cents per horse power per day. This power, with gas at 20 cents per 1000 feet, will be four cents; attendance, oil, &c., altogether, only 5 cents per day per horse power, and part of it gain to City gas manufacture. Gas engines having no waste outside, all consumed in the cylinder, cost of attendance nominal, no noise, bursting, fires, smoke, &c.

Another improvement and saving, beneficial to the industries of the City, by the use of atomic steam coal gas, would be in the forge and blast fires, in the fabrication of metals, &c., from the largest works to small smithies, tin workers, &c., beside doing work with more ease, facility, and of a superior kind, as known by those using gas blasts, blowers, &c., and exemplified recently at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, occupying only one-fourth the time of the usual mode, and at over 50 other places. This branch alone would probably save much over two million dollars per annum.

Again. Of the 30,000 horses now used in the City on the paved streets, with iron shoes, making noise, dirt, wear and tear, &c., about half or more would be replaced by cheap gas power, as also about the same number in connection with the City, its supplies, business, &c. Here would be a further saving probably of two and a half million dollars per annum, beside revenue from gas manufacture.

Again. About 5000 horses used in street cars could be replaced by cheap gas engines, making little or no noise, dirt, wear and tear of streets, &c.; save 30 cents per day each horse power, amounting to about $950,000 per annum; run at 3 cent fare, stable accommodations, &c.

Again. The Fire Department engines, using gas, would save probably about $100,000 in power, fuel, attendance, &c., make little noise, get gas from any street lamp post, or in compressed cylinders.

Again. Pleasure boats, steam tugs, and river craft, can use gas from docks, piers, or otherwise, avoid smoke, fire, noise, risk, &c, and save probably $300,000 per annum.

The various railroads connected with the City will use cheap gas, and while yielding a large revenue to the City therefor of probably one million dollars per annum, would benefit the stockholders largely by the same. All railroads will have pipes to supply the locomotives of all kinds with compressed gas, and light the same where needed, and inclose telegraph wires safely in the pipes, &c.

Again. Another benefit to the citizens and revenue to the City would result by the use of cheap atomic steam coal gas, by the manufacture of ice by gas power, at less than 50 cts. per ton, and the revenue and saving of over one million of dollars per annum.

In the column of millions which can be saved and made by the City and its citizens, there may be a discount in some of the items, but in some, especially in fuel, gas, and home industries, the savings and benefits in a few years would be more than double the amount now stated; of course it takes time to progress herein, but for light, heat, and power, it is immediately available, and of greater magnitude than herein spoken of. For instance, the present gas holders, pipes, &c., for distribution of gas for light alone, principally a few hours after sundown, and comparatively little during the whole day, but by supplying gas for heat and power, the whole holders, pipes, &c., would be supplying the principal hours of the whole day, thus being able to supply the greater difference by the present plant. There would be also much saving in street repair, cleaning, &c.

Again, and not least, will arise domestic and new industries, by the use of cheap atomic steam coal gas, not only in the factories and workshops, but in the important homes of thousands of industrious families, various and new occupations of pleasure and profit, gas doing the hard work, making the same interesting to all of industrious inclinations or habits, the keeping more together members of families, helping one another by thought and instruction, each trying to excel, thus becoming more expert in business, craft, art, &c., instead of going about streets, frequenting places of amusement, of low, immoral resort and company, thus restraining tendencies to immoralities, by being occupied with modes of interesting employment at and near home; thus knowledge, pleasure and employment will occupy the minds of youth, instead of its opposites, manual labor be made more pleasant and enjoyable, the mind and character be improved, laws be more respected and observed.

Again, if electric lights be ever so improved as to make it steady, sub-divided, and safe as to currents, easy to be managed, and of an agreeable quality to suit the eye and purse, should the same be desired in some special large place, or areas, it can be generated by atomic steam coal gas power at a much less cost than steam power, as gas power is less than steam power; this great difference in favor of gas is unquestionable, to those who have examined it, as shown by the many thousand gas engines now in use, and increasing rapidly in size and number.

Gas engines are now in use in Philadelphia and the neighboring cities, paying for gas at from $2.15 to $2.50 per 1,000 cubic feet, and the proprietors of the establishments using the engines give testimonials that the cost of the use of gas engines is much cheaper than steam engines, at the high prices of gas, beside the avoidance of noise, fires, attendance, great space, ashes, fire, dirt, smoke, risks of explosion, &c. The insurance offices also prefer gas engines to steam at less rates. It is evident how much cheaper gas engine power is with atomic steam coal gas, at from ten to twenty-five cents per one thousand cubic feet. The public in general, manufacturers, &c., cannot be blind much longer to these facts; hence the progress of gas engines as a motive power and greater convenience. The Gas Company of Paris alone has built and disposed of over eight hundred gas engines, beside vast numbers of stoves, furnaces, &c., for heat, all of which they either rent or sell, as the public may desire.

In Philadelphia nearly one hundred gas engines have been manufactured and are in use. There are two establishments engaged in gas engine manufacture, one of which is now filling an order or contract for three dozen gas engines, at the present high price of gas, and are probably being built by the gross in Europe, like clocks. Therefore, the change from steam to gas power will be more rapid in proportion to the cheaper rates at which gas is and can be supplied, and industries be thus encouraged.

Another consideration in favor of gas engines is, the fact that heavy and ponderous shafting, wheels, pullies, belting, hangers, their cost, and attendance, can be dispensed with generally; gas engines and factories of moderate and small sizes can be arranged, the engines readily moved and placed, and in localities in factories or dwellings where most immediately needed (there being no furnace, boiler, steam-pipes and such connections), on a table, bench, the operation of small pullies, shafting, &c., the attendance to gas engines being almost nominal, only the turning of a gas cock to start or stop it, with a little oil similar to a sewing machine, thus small establishments, by special and close attention thereto, will multiply and excel over large ones.

The improvements and economy here mentioned pertain to the home industries of Philadelphia, and its benefits made available in the City, to the increased industries and cheaper comforts to be made here, by cheap gas, supplying other places by the manufacture of products at lower prices, in consequence of superior advantages gained by such economy, &c.

The amounts named are not merely the present cost of things enumerated, but the cost actually above or beyond what they might, and should be supplied at; thus the amounts saved to, and by the community. If these are not made available here, those outside, or in other places, will reap its benefits, thus compete with, and outdo the industries of Philadelphia, by the greater economy and uses of cheap gas; thus the City be so many millions the poorer, unemployed, and sunk in debt.

Industries prosper where better facilities are enjoyed; Philadelphia once excelled in the manufacture of lamps, gas burners, &c., these are almost extinct here now, but flourishing elsewhere; gas fixtures following the same road; other works to New Castle, Chester, and elsewhere.

New establishments to manufacture gas are now proposed, with separate works in New Jersey, Delaware, near to, and in the City, because the Gas Trusts will not avail themselves of improved modes. These new works will supply the City at much less cost than at present, but not so low as the City works could, if properly managed. The value of the City works will depreciate to the extent of millions. New gas will be supplied in compressed portable cylinders, like soda, ale, lager, soda vessels, milk, &c., are supplied; all such will have the advantage of no cost of mains, supply-pipes, street leakages, &c. This was done forty to fifty years ago, in London, Paris, and elsewhere, until coal gas was supplied at much lower prices. I had the entire charge of the engines, cylinders, and plant in London, which was purchased by engineer Brunell for the Great Western Railroad Company, near forty years since, and recommended the using thereof for lighting the cars, stations, and other desirable places, which was done some years after, and since, in portions of the United States. This can be now done here, readily, without loss of time, and to great profit to investors, supplying other places from thence with cheap gas. Iron, steel, and necessary materials suitable, are about one-third the price of a few years since. A telegram to Sheffield or Birmingham, if not convenient here, would have all sufficient ready for use here while gas generators are being made ready.

If your Honorable Corporation, or Gas Trustees, do not accept the free offers of gas improvements I have so long made, during the coming month of July, I most respectfully, and regretfully decline longer withholding the improvements of atomic steam coal gas from the use and benefit of the public generally, as has been done by the delay of action of the Corporation or Gas Trusts, so that works be arranged for it in such manner as private or other organizations may deem best for the public.

No City Corporation can prevent the manufacture of atomic steam coal gas, made from coal dust and water, (not being explosive as coal oil, &c.,) or laying of pipes as a necessary, to supply the same to the public. The United States has granted patent and authority for its make and use throughout the States, without exception.

The City of New Orleans Gas Company, on the 4th of June, commenced the supply of gas for cooking, heating, and domestic uses, at fifty cents per one thousand feet less than for illumination, and charge nothing for meters, appliances, &c., thereto; are also providing stoves, heaters, &c., therefor. Other cities are adopting the same. Numerous places in Europe have done so for years. It is to the interest of gas works to do so,—supply more gas, cheaper, &c., as well as accommodate the community.

I am not aware that the Gas Trustees are specially bound to continue making gas at several hundred per cent. more than it can be made for, specifically, in the old mode, against the interest and benefit of the public. If there are any such specifications in their charter or deed of trust, certainly the same can, and ought to be corrected, for heat, light, and power are the main common necessities of life to all towns, cities, &c., and should be as cheap as bread, water, and light, but now costing the citizens of Philadelphia so many millions per annum more than it ought, and can save.

Courts of Justice will ignore all attempts to continue excessive impositions on gas for purposes of light, heat, and power, and attempts to have the so called power rivetted on the public years in advance, as reported trying to be done, such should be treated with the ignominy it deserves, its authors and abettors held to account by the public as the enemies of mankind and progressive improvement.

As the before mentioned uses of cheap gas, and amounts saved and made thereby, may not be appreciated without detail, therefore please allow me to add up the amounts which can be saved by adopting atomic steam coal gas instead of the present Rip Van Winkle retort, coke, tar, and gas process, which make nine-tenths of coke, tar, &c., out of most expensive coal, but only one-tenth of gas. Whereas the atomic steam coal gas process, makes no coke, tar, &c., uses cheap refuse coal-dust and water, but converts all the carbon of the coal into gas, together with the vast amount of hydrogen which form cheap water or steam, hence the cost so surprisingly low, and benefits derived therefrom so great.

The savings or gains referred to, are as follows :

On gas light at an annual consumption of twenty-two thousand millions feet, and sold per annum, at fifty cents per one thousand feet, a saving of over ten thousand dollars per day, - - - - -	$3,633,000
The use of gas as fuel, (may amount to ten times,) but say five times only as much as light, - - - - -	18,165,000
The numerous steam engines in the city, of twenty-six thousand horse power, and water works, - - - - -	2,350,000
Gas for blast and forge works, smithies, tinners, &c., - - - - -	2,000,000
In connection with gas for horse power, for say thirty thousand horses, and connections, &c., - - - - -	2,000,000
Saving in gas engines for street cars for five thousand horses and connections, - - -	950,000
Fire engine department, horses, boats, tugs, &c.,	400,000
Gas manufacture of ice, at fifty cents per ton,	1,000,000
Four hundred to five hundred locomotives using gas in connection with city, &c., -	1,000,000
On twelve thousand public lamps, saving wear and tear of streets, cleaning, removal of ashes, &c., - - - - -	1,000,000
Gain or saving in above items, - - - - -	$32,498,000

Of course such would take time, but requires a beginning, and the savings, &c., increase to double, in various ways.

Please allow me to say, I have spent much time, &c., in the endeavor to induce your honorable corporation to avail themselves of the benefits of these great improvements, resulting effects and industries, where the improvements may be adopted. If no action is taken by you soon, I may arrange with private parties, companies, &c., to adopt them, and the public get some benefit in the manner explained in my last pamphlet I published thereon.

It may interest you to know, that while the subject has not been acted on here, other places and nations have taken it up, for adoption of its benefits and improvements, and blessings.

Without delay, four colonies of Australia have arranged for its immediate use, and the three others preparing for and perhaps now settled.

The English and some other European governments have officially entered into its consideration, as of national benefit as well as to its citizens. Since I commenced this letter I also received one from the most august sovereign on the European continent. Canada and Brazil also have the same in consideration, so that it may be assured that if some sleep as to these improvements, and continue in ignorance, or otherwise to grind the consumers of gas, block progressive improvements, pile enormous debts on property and citizens, that there are others more awake to their interest, sane, morally honest and progressive, entering into such improvements, savings, and comforts, which The Infinite Divine, in His great mercy, has provided for those who will receive, and faithfully use them.

Allow me to remark in connection with using gas as motive power for lifting water from the Schuylkill, the important fact should be borne in mind of the availability of ten times more water being for use thereby, which now passes as waste, after operating the turbine wheels, if I am correctly informed. Here I might again remind your Honor of the improved plan I sent you some two years since for using the river bed as a grand and effective water filter, by which means all the water pumped would be clear, and of the same temperature as the river bed, the same also serving as a reservoir, in proportions to the dimensions thereof, thus costing nothing for reservoir site, embankments, &c. (Please pardon the digression.)

May it please you to allow me to refer you to my offer of gas improvements in the first instance, as also explained in pamphlets sent to members of Councils: That my improvements were offered for the city's use and benefit, provided the gas was sold to consumers at fifty cents per one thousand feet or less, and to all churches and charitable establishments at twenty-five cents per one thousand feet, charging no patent benefit to myself, or any personal benefit therefrom, but in the manner described in said communication.

Although, so-called, invented and patented by me, I acknowledge and feel that Providence alone is the source and cause of all improvements, as mankind are adapted to receive it. And as written in St. Peter's epistle: "As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same to one another, as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified, through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen."

Please allow me Mr. Mayor and gentlemen, to close this communication with my best wishes for your, and your citizens' health, happiness, and progress, in accordance with abilities, and to assure you most verily and truly my belief, that, with comparative little alteration to your gas works, proper management thereof and distribution, that good atomic steam coal gas can be made and supplied to consumers for twenty-five cents per one thousand cubic feet for light, and fifteen to twenty cents per one thousand feet for fuel and power; and from the profits thereof, and large consumption, soon pay all indebtedness and interest owing, then a still lower reduction of price, or use the surplus for city revenue.

Your most humble and obedient servant,

JAMES CRUTCHETT, C. E.,

APPENDIX No. 18.

Philadelphia, September 18, 1879.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I herewith transmit a certified copy of a "Joint resolution passed by the Legislature of the States of New Jersey and New Hampshire, relative to the passage of an Act of Congress appropriating from the Treasury of the United States a sum sufficient to pay the balance due to the subscribers to the Centennial Board of Finance of the late Centennial International Exhibition, held in this City in the year 1876," for such action in the premises as to you shall seem proper.

Yours, very respectfully,

W. S. STOKLEY,

Mayor.

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

In the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

Joint resolution in reference to closing up the Centennial International Exhibition, held in Philadelphia A. D. 1876.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

WHEREAS, The inhabitants of the State of New Jersey, through their representatives in the Senate and General Assembly, did, in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-one, pass a joint resolution designating the City of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania, in which the Declaration of Independence was signed and promulgated, as the proper place to appropriately celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of the same, and did appoint a committee to confer with the authorities of the said City in reference to the holding of an international exhibition of science, arts, manufactures, and the products of the soil and mine.

AND WHEREAS, The said international exhibition was held in the name of and under the auspices of the government of the United States, in Fairmount Park, City of Philadelphia, in eighteen hundred and seventy-six, it being the centennial anniversary year of American Independence, and designed to commemorate and perpetuate the memories of the heroes, statesmen, and inhabitants of the colonies, who, through their wisdom, great sufferings and sacrifices, achieved Independence, established for the inhabitants thereof constitutional government, and registered it upon the roll of the family of nations as the Government of the United States of America, in which name the people of all nations and governments were cordially invited to attend and participate in said International Exhibition.

AND WHEREAS, The invitation was accepted by all nations, who were represented through government officials and their people, bearing with them specimens of art and the products of the intelligent industries of their respective countries in their greatest perfection.

AND WHEREAS, The large attendance and display by the people of all nations upon that occasion was not only complimentary to the memories of the founders of this Republic, but highly instructive to the people of the United States, and produced the most beneficial effects upon the commercial, manufacturing, and agricultural industries of the country, and was of incalculable influence in promoting sentiments of peace and good will among the people of all the States of the American Union, as well as elevating our country in the estimation of all nations who participated with us.

AND WHEREAS, The contribution of one million dollars by the State of Pennsylvania, and one million five hundred thousand dollars by the City of Philadelphia, with the uniform courtesy and generous and liberal hospitality extended to the nation's invited guests during their attendance at the exhibition, by the citizens of that City, should be deemed by the people of the United States as a liberal and generous contribution in support of the honor and dignity of the nation.

AND WHEREAS, The large amount necessary to defray the expenses of the Commissioners appointed by the President of the United States, the proper offices, judges, and police force for the protection of the amount of valuable property on exhibition by all nations, was an unavoidable expenditure, as also for the erection of spacious buildings adapted to no other purpose, which buildings were sold at the close of the exhibition at a nominal price.

AND WHEREAS, In view of the large contributions made by the State of Pennsylvania, the City and citizens of Philadelphia, to insure the success of the Exhibition, and the fact that the people of the entire nation have, and will continue to share alike its honors and its benefits; it is but proper that the Government of the United States should bear a reasonable proportion of the expense, of which the balance due to stockholders is but a small amount; therefore

Be it resolved by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the United States Senators from the State of New Jersey be, and are, hereby instructed, and the Representatives in Congress requested to ascertain the balance due to the subscribers to the Centennial Board of Finance, and to prepare and support an Act appropriating the same from the Treasury of the United States.

And be it resolved, That the Governors of the other twelve of the thirteen original states be requested to send copies of this preamble and resolution to the senators and representatives of their respective states, requesting them to use their influence to have the great centennial anniversary of our nation's independence closed up consistently with the honor and dignity of a nation holding so high a position in the estimation of the civilized world.

And be it resolved, That the Governor of this State be, and is, hereby requested to transmit an engrossed copy of this preamble and resolution to the President of the United States, Vice-President, and Speaker of the House of Representatives, and engrossed copies to the Governors of the twelve states as aforesaid.

That we fully adopt said preamble, and the Senators and Representatives in Congress, from the State of New Hampshire, are requested to ascertain the balance due to subscribers to the Centennial Board of Finance, and to prepare and support an Act appropriating the same from the Treasury of the United States.

And be it resolved, That the Governor of this State be, and he is, hereby requested to transmit engrossed copies of the aforesaid preamble and resolutions to the President and Vice-President of the United States, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to the Governors of the several States.

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

President of the Senate.

Approved July 19, 1879.

NATT HEAD,
Governor.

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE.

Concord, August 4, 1879.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a correct copy of the original joint resolution.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my official signature, and affixed the seal of the State.

RESOLUTION

Providing for the Centennial Anniversary of the surrender at Yorktown.

WHEREAS, The people of the Colony of Virginia, in view of the oppressions imposed by the home government, which oppressions it had steadily refused to remove, did, in the year 1774, invite the twelve other colonies of Great Britain in America to meet them in Congress in the City of Philadelphia, for the purpose of discussing and remedying their common grievances; and,

WHEREAS, The said thirteen colonies by their delegates did assemble in Congress, and failing to secure justice or relief, did, on July 4, 1776, publish to the world a Declaration of Independence, proclaiming the said thirteen colonies free and independent; and,

WHEREAS, The war in defence of the independence so declared virtually closed with the surrender of Lord Cornwallis' army at Yorktown, in the State of Virginia, on the 19th day of October, A. D. 1781, which surrender lead to the separation of the thirteen colonies from the government of Great Britain, making them one people, and establishing their true position among the nations of the earth; and,

WHEREAS, The Centennial anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, which was the sequel event of the resolution, was properly celebrated in 1876 in the City of Philadelphia, it is becoming that the Centennial anniversary of the close of that memorable struggle, the 19th day of October, A. D. 1881, should, in like manner, be appropriately commemorated at Yorktown; and,

WHEREAS, The propriety of holding in Philadelphia, at the next or ninety-eighth anniversary of the surrender of Yorktown, a preliminary meeting of the Governors of the original thirteen states, with the view of initiating a grand national centennial movement, has been most earnestly recommended by an influential mass meeting of the citizens of Virginia, held this current month at Yorktown. Therefore, be it

Resolved by the Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia, That the Governor of this Commonwealth be, and is, hereby requested to invite the Governors of the other twelve original colonies to meet him, either in person or by delegate, in Independence Hall, in this city, on Saturday, the 18th of October next, 1879, for the purpose of properly bringing the subject of such celebration before the people of the whole nation.

Resolved, That the use of Independence Hall be granted for such purpose, and that copies of this preamble and resolutions be transmitted to his Excellency, the Governor of this Commonwealth; his Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, and Dr. Robert H. Power, Chairman of the Citizens Committee, at Yorktown, Virginia.

Provided, That the City of Philadelphia shall be at no expense.

APPENDIX No. 32.

LAW DEPARTMENT,

Philadelphia, October 2, 1879.

To the President and Members of Common Council.

GENTLEMEN:—In compliance with your “Resolution of request to the City Solicitor, relative to summons and judgment against the City,” I reply with great pleasure, as follows:

By the Fourteenth Section of the Act of March 11, 1789, 2 Smith’s Laws, page 466, &c., it was provided that the Recorder should have all the powers and jurisdictions previously vested in that officer, and that he should also be vested “with all the powers and jurisdictions of a justice of the peace within the said City.”

At the time of the passage of this Act of Assembly, a justice of the peace by virtue of the Act of May 28, 1715, [Carey and Bioren, Vol. 1, Chap. CCXI., page 108], possessed jurisdiction over “any debt or demand under forty shillings.”

Hence the Recorder was endowed with jurisdiction over such cases, and he received, among the other powers of a justice of the peace, the power of the latter to charge the costs.

There are various Acts of Assembly upon the subject of the costs to be charged by justices of the peace, but in so far as relates to Philadelphia they seem now to be regulated by the Act of February 3, 1865, P. L., page 92.

I am, very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

WM. NELSON WEST.

APPENDIX No. 33.

OFFICE OF COMMISSIONERS OF PUBLIC BUILDINGS,

Philadelphia, September 24, 1879.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—The Act of Assembly approved August 5, 1870, to provide for the erection of the Public Buildings, enjoins that the "Commissioners shall make requisition on the Councils of said City prior to the first day of December of each year, for the amount of money required by them for the purposes of the Commission for the succeeding year; and said Councils shall levy a special tax sufficient to raise the amount so required."

The Act of Assembly approved June 11, 1879 (Pamph. Laws, p. 130,) makes it "the duty of the said Councils to levy and fix a tax rate on or before the first day of October, in each and every year, for the year next ensuing."

To prevent any possible misunderstanding, or ground for failure to provide "the amount of money required for the purposes of the Commission for the succeeding year," the Commission hereby make requisition on Councils for the sum of one million two hundred and seventy-four thousand (1,274,000) dollars, required for the purposes of the Commission for the year 1880. This amount corresponds with that mentioned in the communication addressed on behalf of the Commissioners to the City Controller, under date of July 12, 1879, and was specifically set forth as one of the items of estimated expenses of the City for 1880, in the "detailed statement of the estimated receipts, expenditures, and liabilities of every kind for the next fiscal year," furnished by that officer to Councils, in accordance with the requirements of the above mentioned Act of 11th June, 1879.

Very respectfully,

SAM'L C. PERKINS,

President Commissioners.

APPENDIX No. 34.

DEPARTMENT OF HIGHWAYS, BRIDGES, AND SEWERS,

Philadelphia, October 2, 1872.

To the Presidents and Members of the
Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN :—When, in my recent communication to the City Controller, I estimated the amount required by the Highway Department at $425,000, I felt that to do the work actually required, I had placed the figures as low as possible. In obedience, however, to your resolution, I have carefully revised my former estimate, and with a desire to meet the views of Councils upon the subject of appropriations I have made a further reduction of $58,781, making the total amount asked for $366,219, or $160,790 less than the amount expended this year.

The principal part of this very large reduction affects several of the more prominent items, and a large amount of important work I had contemplated doing, and which citizens are demanding, will consequently have to be dispensed with; but since the tax rate has been fixed at $2.00 it becomes imperative for the Heads of Departments to curtail and economize at all points, and do no work but that which the exigencies of the case may demand.

When, however, we contemplate the magnitude of the work to be performed, with the comparatively small appropriation, the latter does not seem adequate to the demands upon it, for there are in the City of Philadelphia 900 miles of paved streets, 250 miles of which are occupied by passenger railways, leaving 650 miles to be cared for by the Highway Department; 1,100 miles of unpaved streets, 400 miles of sewers, 10,000 inlets, and several hundred bridges, all of which require constant attention, but as long as I have the honor to be at the head of this Department, I shall endeavor to manage in as judicious a manner as possible whatever amount Councils may, in their wisdom, see fit to appropriate.

The following table will show the annual amounts expended during the four years of my incumbency, viz. :

In 1876,	-	-	-	$1,222,040
In 1877,	-	-	-	1,068,910
In 1878,	-	-	-	556,415
In 1879,	-	-	-	527,009
Asked for 1880,	-	-	-	366,219

It will be seen that the estimate for 1880 is $855,821 less than the amount appropriated in 1876 ; and I would here say that reducing expenditures has been to a large extent facilitated by the adoption in the year 1878 of the system of giving out work by contract in districts, which has saved the City several hundred thousand dollars.

Under this system, the sewers especially are in a better condition than ever before, as contractors being responsible for any break which may happen in their respective districts, have gone through all the sewers, and repaired and strengthened them at all points showing signs of weakness, and hence the reduction I have made on the item for such work is justified, as I feel assured I can get responsible contractors to do the said work for the amount named. The same may be said in regard to the items for cleaning sewers, repairing bridges, and one or two others.

Very respectfully,

WILLIAM BALDWIN,

Chief Commissioner of Highways.

APPENDIX No. 35.

LAW DEPARTMENT,

Philadelphia, October 2, 1879.

To the President and Members of Common Council.

GENTLEMEN:—I respectfully suggest the importance of providing for the payment of the overseers of election, who may be appointed to serve at the next election.

The failure to do so exposes the City to hopeless litigation, and largely increases the sum which she in the end must pay.

I have prepared an ordinance on the subject which will be duly offered.

Respectfully your obedient servant,

WM. NELSON WEST,

City Solicitor.

APPENDIX No. 62.

OFFICE COMMISSIONERS FOR ERECTION OF PUBLIC BUILDINGS,

Philadelphia, October 16, 1879.

JOHN A. CLARK, Esq.,

Chairman Finance Committee of Councils.

DEAR SIR:—At the stated meeting of the Commissioners, held on the 7th inst., a communication was read and directed to be sent to your Committee. As a matter of convenience the communication with the statements thereto appended, together with the original requisition of the Commissioners on Councils, has been put in a printed form, and there are herewith sent twenty-five copies thereof for the use of your Committee.

I avail myself of the opportunity to state with a view of satisfying possible inquiries, that the $10,215.47, appearing upon the Controller's books, in the item of "Department of Public Buildings," as appropriated in the years 1869 and 1870, has nothing whatever to do with the present body of Commissioners who came into existence August 5, 1870, upon the approval of the Act of the Legislature. The sum mentioned was appropriated to and wholly expended by a body created by Ordinance of December 31, 1868 (Ordinances p. 571), for the purpose of erecting Buildings on Independence Square.

I have further to state that the City Treasurer reports that he has paid under mandamus for the

Public Buildings, - - - - -	$270,321 24
While the books of the Commissioners show for special warrants paid to Messrs. Struthers & Sons, - - - - -	265,196 26
Being a difference of - - - - -	$5,124 98

Both are correct. The Commissioners drew the warrants for the amounts of Messrs. Struthers & Sons' bills for material and work. Messrs. Struthers & Sons had to sue the City upon the warrants, and the interest and costs allowed in and upon the judgments obtained in three suits made up the difference. A reference to the records of the suits (Common Pleas, No. 2, March Term, 1877, No. 724, and September Term, 1877, No. 110) and to the writs of mandamus which with the receipts of the parties to whom the money was paid endorsed thereon, the City Treasurer retains as his vouchers, will enable any one desirous of satisfying himself of the exact figures, and the true state of the facts, to do so.

If the parties to whom warrants are issued do not present them to the Controller to be countersigned, they, of course, are not entered on his books. Parties whose bills have been approved, sometimes fail to call for their warrants, and others after they have obtained them delay presentation to the Controller for his countersignature for two or three days or even longer. If these warrants, however, are not presented to him before the expiration of the fiscal year, they cease to have any effect, and new warrants must be issued before the parties can receive payment.

Very respectfully,

SAML. C. PERKINS,
President Commission.

OFFICE OF COMMISSIONERS FOR ERECTION OF PUBLIC BUILDINGS,

Philadelphia, October 7, 1879.

To the Finance Committee of Councils:

The requisition, dated September 24, made upon Councils in obedience to the Act of Assembly, by the Commissioners, for the amount of money required for the purposes of the Commission for 1880, having been referred by Councils to the Finance Committee, the Commission present the following statement:—

The requisition is made obligatory upon the Commission by the express terms of the Act, and the decision of the Supreme Court has emphasized the duty entrusted to them. The Act of Assembly of August 5, 1870, establishing the Commission, and the decision of the Supreme Court in the Mandamus Case, are familiar, doubtless, to all the members of Councils, and need not here be referred to in detail.

In no shape or way is it made the duty of the Commission to provide the money for the execution of the trust committed to them; and they have never ventured even a suggestion as to the matter. This would be an intrusion upon the province of Councils. The Commission have confined themselves to their own duties, as prescribed by the law-making power which created both bodies. At the same time, in considering the amount of money required for their purposes from year to year, the Commission have not been unmindful of the financial condition of the city. In the language of the Supreme Court: "They have no private interest in the premises which are not in common with other citizens." "In the public interest" they took the necessary measures to establish their rights under the law, but they have taken no step to enforce, by execution, the rights thus established.

In accordance with the expressed wish of Councils, that rooms should be fitted up for the accommodation of certain departments, an expenditure has been made in the direction of the permanent structural portions of the building in the interior, to an extent not contemplated in the early part of the year, but which was rendered necessary by true economy, for the rooms required to be fitted up. The limited appropriation made by Councils, combined with the changes made necessary in the adapting a portion of the building to present occupation, restricted the Commissioners in reference to the action which they desired to have taken towards the placing of at least a large portion of the building under permanent roof. Had they been able, at the commencement of the present building season, to have made their contracts for the iron work of the permanent roof, they could have done so for, probably, at least half the building, and at a saving to the city of some $100,000 or more, owing to the great advance since in the price of all kinds of iron work.

The amount for which the Commissioners made their requisition for 1879 was based upon the estimates and calculations made the previous year in the course of the conferences between themselves and the Finance Committee of Councils; and it was then distinctly explained and understood, that if the Commission could have $750,000 for 1878, and $1,250,000 for 1879, the building could be carried up to the cornice of the second story all around upon the exterior, and also upon the court yard; and the corridor and division walls of the interior, with all the necessary girders and beams for the principal permanent structure of the entire building, to that height, could be completed.

This, however, did not take into consideration the fitting up of any portion of the building for temporary occupation. In January, 1877, a communication had been addressed to Councils by the Commissioners, stating their readiness, if necessary appropriations were made, to fit up rooms temporarily for certain of the Departments; but, after full discussion and consideration of the subject, extending over several months, Councils failed to take final action, and dropped the matter.

In 1878 Councils made an appropriation of but $600,000, of which $112,170 18 was at once paid out to the marble contractors for amounts overdue them for work and material in 1877. The appropriation for 1879 was but $750,000, instead of $1,265,000, for which the Commissioners made requisition. Both the sums appropriated in 1878 and 1879 were fixed without any calculation or estimate of what could be accomplished by them towards the completion of the buildings; and the provisions attached to the appropriations prevented the Commissioners from proceeding with the work in accordance with their maturely considered plans for its harmonious, judicious, and economical carrying on towards final completion. The delays, embarrassments, and derangement of plans thus entailed, have been productive of detriment to the work, and loss to the city.

The amount named in the requisition for the year 1880 was based upon estimates for completing the marble work on all the fronts and court-yards to the level of the principal cornice; and on the southern front and the south half of the east and west fronts (exclusive of the centre pavilions) to complete the attic story so that the roof might be set in place over that portion of the building. It was also intended to complete and set in place the iron beams and girders for the fourth floor; to complete the second story of the Conversation Hall in the tower, and to construct the principal staircase in the centre pavilion of the southern entrance to its full height; and also to finish ready for occupancy the Council Chambers and the rooms appurtenant thereto.

By leaving out of the work thus intended a large part of the roofing, and of the iron beams and girders,—the finishing of the Council Chambers,—and a part of the interior finish for which dressed stone is required,—and also part of the marble work as contemplated, the estimates can be reduced to $749,750. The whole of the work intended to be accomplished by the sum for which the requisition has been made upon Councils could be, with very great advantage to the buildings, completed during the next year. If the financial condition of the city and the rate of tax as fixed by Councils seems to render it expedient to defer some part of the work till a subsequent year, the Commission are willing to modify their requisition so as to reduce it to the less sum named—$749,750.

In making this modification, however, the Commission deem it proper to say, that this is the lowest amount with which they can carry on the operations of their trust; and that with this reduction, and in view of the great increase in the price of many of the heavy materials used in the construction, it will hardly be possible for them to continue the fitting up of additional rooms for occupancy by the Departments; nor can they, in view of the probable further increase in prices and the uncertainty as to the facilities for making their contracts, specify in what direction the construction of the buildings will be carried on. This must be determined by their best judgment, as the exigencies of the case from time to time shall indicate to be the most judicious course to pursue.

The Commissioners therefore respectfully, but firmly,—again calling special attention of Councils to the very clear and decided language of the Supreme Court in regard to the respective duties, powers and rights of the two bodies under the Act of Assembly creating the Commission,—feel constrained to insist that the sum to be appropriated for their purposes during the coming year shall not only be not less than the amount named in this communication, but shall be appropriated without proviso, limitation or condition in any way as to the mode of its expenditure. This is the right of the Commission under the law; if they violate their trust, the law gives ample redress.

If, after this statement, there shall arise a want of harmony and confusion in the administration of the municipal affairs, and possible inconvenience and hardship, the responsibility must rest where it properly belongs; the Commissioners cannot feel that any part of it will rest upon them.

That there may not continue any misapprehension in the minds of the community arising from grossly false statements, which any examination of the public records conducted with the slightest pretence to a regard to the facts would have prevented, the Commissioners annex hereto detailed statements of the appropriations to and the actual expenditures by them, and of the amounts specifically raised for the erection of the buildings.

From these statements it appears that the Commission came into existence August 5th, 1870, upon the approval by the Governor of the act creating the body; that the first appropriation made to the Commission was by ordinance of April 6th, 1872; that the total appropriation, from the beginning down to and including that for the present year, amounts to $5,326,609.88; that the total actual expenditures by the Commission, from the beginning down to September 30th, 1879, inclusive, amount to $5,396,929.00; that there was on the latter date an unexpended balance of appropriations to the credit of the Commission amounting to $194,877.14; that the amount received into the City Treasury from the direct tax up to October 1st, 1879, has been $3,328,618.16, and from the Commissioners, for rent of fence and sale of old materials, &c., up to the same date, has been $5,194.86.

By order of the Commissioners,

SAMUEL C. PERKINS,
President.

Philadelphia, September 24, 1879.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

The Act of Assembly, approved August 5, 1870, to provide for the erection of the Public Buildings, enjoins that the "Commissioners shall make requisition on the Councils of said City prior to the first day of December of each year, for the amount of money required by them for the purposes of the Commission for the succeeding year; and said Councils shall levy a special tax sufficient to raise the amount so required."

The Act of Assembly, approved June 11, 1879, (Pamph. Laws, p. 130), makes it "the duty of the said Councils to levy and fix a tax rate on or before the first day of October in each and every year, for the year next ensuing."

To prevent any possible misunderstanding, or ground for failure to provide "the amount of money required for the purposes of the Commission for the succeeding year," the Commissioners hereby make requisition on Councils for the sum of $1,274,000, required for the purposes of the Commission for the year 1880. This amount corresponds with that mentioned in the communication addressed on behalf of the Commissioners to the City Controller, under date of July 12, 1879, and was specifically set forth as one of the items of estimated expenses of the City for 1880, in the "detailed statement of the estimated receipts, expenditures and liabilities of every kind for the next fiscal year," furnished by that officer to Councils, in accordance with the requirements of the above-mentioned Act of 11th June, 1879.

Very respectfully,

SAMUEL C. PERKINS,
President of Commissioners.

APPENDIX No. 64.

Philadelphia, October 16, 1879.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—The Joint Special Committee appointed pursuant to Resolution No. 10, entitled “Resolution to appoint a Special Committee on Salaries fixed by the Salary Board,” respectfully report that they held several meetings, to which were invited the respective heads of the departments in which the salaries were fixed by the Salary Board—all of whom were present, and conferred with the Committee, except the Register of Wills and Sheriff. The Committee have fixed the number and salaries by authority of Section 2, of the Act of May 21, 1879, abolishing the Salary Board, having due regard to the salaries received in the other departments of the City. They struck out the Solicitor in the Register of Wills Department, believing that the Register, like other departments of the City, should have recourse to the Law Department. They referred the Solicitors and Assistant Solicitor of the Sheriff to the Committee on Finance of Councils for want of information respecting their duties. They have reduced the salaries in the departments as follows:

Recorder of Deeds, $4,100; City Commissioners, $2,100; Prothonotary of Courts of Common Pleas, $13,000; Clerk of Quarter Sessions, $3,700; City Controller, $6,570; City Treasurer, $7,100; Register of Wills, $12,600; Sheriff, $10,201; Coroner, $700; and District Attorney having but two officers at small salaries, was allowed to remain. The total reductions were $60,071. The Committee append a statement of their reductions and submit the annexed ordinance relative to the same, and recommend its passage.

LAW DEPARTMENT OF THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA,

Philadelphia, October 9, 1879.

JOHN A. CLARK, Esq.,

Chairman Finance Committee.

DEAR SIR:—I have considered the matter of the proposed ordinance making an appropriation of $2,482 to reimburse George F. Eyre for expenses incurred in extending Palmer street wharf, and in regard thereto have to say as follows :

City Councils, by ordinance approved December 31, 1877, authorized and directed the Commissioner of Markets and City Property to extend Palmer street wharf on the river Delaware to the Port Wardens' line. The Commissioner of Markets, in pursuance of said authorization, and in the manner prescribed by law, on March 25, 1878, caused a contract to be executed between the City of Philadelphia and George F. Eyre, whereby the latter, for considerations therein specified, covenanted and agreed to furnish and deliver the necessary materials, and to do and perform all the work necessary for the said extending of Palmer street wharf.

Upon the execution of this agreement Mr. Eyre commenced the proposed extension, and, according to the statement submitted to me by you with the ordinance, had furnished labor and materials to the amount of $2,325.67, when further progress of the work was stopped by an injunction. It is for the last mentioned amount, with interest, that compensation is sought, and if, under the circumstances stated, Mr. Eyre has a just and valid claim against the City, it follows that he ought to be paid the sum demanded. That Mr. Eyre's claim is just and valid will, I think, appear from the following considerations :

The distinction between the differing capacities in which a municipal corporation may act, and the effect of each upon its liability, is clearly shown by STRONG, J., delivering the opinion in the case of The Western Saving Fund Society vs. City of Philadelphia and others, 7 Cas., 185, and while he says that "a municipal corporation, acting in its public capacity," is not bound by any engagement which may be in excess of its powers, or which prevents a discharge of its duties conferred or imposed upon it by its organic law, for the plain reason that such engagements are contrary to law, he also adds, "but when such a corporation engages in things not public in their nature, it acts as a private individual, and is as much bound by its engagements as is a private person." In attempting to improve property, supposed to be that of the municipality, by the construction of a wharf for purposes of private advantage to the corporation, the City was not acting in its public, political, or municipal character; and it stands, therefore, as regards liability for such action, on the same footing as would any individual.

If an action is brought against an individual to recover for the erection of a building, it is assuredly no answer for the defendant, admitting the agreement, to say that the ground, which he believed his, turns out to be another's, and therefore he ought not to be called upon to pay for the buildings erected thereon at his instance and request.

To state such an objection is to show its absurdity. But if such a defence cannot avail a private individual, neither can the City, acting in a private capacity, avail herself of it.

It is hardly necessary to add that it is unquestionably within the power of the corporation to improve her own property; in attempting to make the improvement in question, she has mistaken her rights and committed an error, the consequences of which, in all fairness and honesty, should not be made to fall upon an innocent party.

I am therefore of opinion that the bill should be reported with a favorable recommendation.

Yours, very truly,

WM. NELSON WEST,

City Solicitor.

hereby appropriated to the Department of Markets and City Property to pay for work done and materials furnished by George F. Eyre for and about the extension of Palmer street wharf, river Delaware. Provided, That the said George F. Eyre releases the City from all further claim under his contract. GENTLEMEN :—In reply to your resolution of October 17, 1879, requesting me to inform your honorable bodies whether or not the Camden and Atlantic Railroad Company have sublet the premises leased from the City of Philadelphia, at the foot of Vine street, and if they have done so, why I do not annul the lease, I desire to say that I have communicated with Mr. Chas. D. Freeman, President of the Camden and Atlantic Railroad Company, who informs me that no change has been made in the management of the premises at the foot of Vine street, on the river Delaware, since the lease was first made, and all that has been done in reference thereto has been with the full knowledge and acquiescence of the proper officers of the City of Philadelphia.

Very respectfully yours,

DEAR SIR:—Since sending in my estimates for the year 1880, my attention has been called to the Act of Assembly of May 16, 1878, relating to the poor tax for the township of Roxborough (P. I have, therefore, prepared a draft of such an item to be inserted in the ordinance already submitted to you as No. covering the said tax for the year requested—1879, which will enable the said managers to receive so much of their poor tax for that year as shall be paid to me during the current year, or be collected by the Collector of Delinquent Taxes during the year 1880.

GENTLEMEN:—I beg leave to call your attention to the fact that many years since the Pennsylvania Railroad Company took possession of some three and a-half acres of land belonging to the Almshouse property at Blockley, for which no compensation has ever been received by the City of Philadelphia. As long ago, say as 1869, this matter was brought to the notice of Councils by the Board of Guardians at my instance. I may further say that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company do not deny their accountability in this matter, but say no bill has ever been presented to them, and when it is they are ready to pay it, if found correct. This matter, seems to me, should be settled now, when more land is required by this Company from the same tract.

Yours respectfully,

EDWARD T. PARKER.

APPENDIX No. 98.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,

Philadelphia, November 20, 1879.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I herewith return, without my approval, "An Ordinance to prevent the merging of the amount to the credit of Item 27 of the appropriation to the Water Department for the year 1879."

By reference to the general appropriation to the Department for Supplying the City with Water, approved January 10, 1879, Item 27 is as follows: "For the further extension of the Water Works, so as to secure a fuller supply of water in the more elevated portions of the Fifteenth, Twentieth, Twenty-eighth, Twenty-ninth, and adjoining Wards, subject to more specific appropriations by future ordinances, one hundred thousand dollars."

No portion of this amount is as yet expended, and I can see no reason why such a doubtful item should be continued over to the credit of the Department. If I had had the power to veto this particular item in the appropriation ordinance, I would have done so at the time it was presented for my approval.

Whenever this appropriation is needed, or plans approved for the purpose of obtaining a better supply of water in the localities mentioned, your honorable bodies can then readily make the necessary provisions therefor.

I return the said ordinance for your consideration.

Yours, very respectfully,

W. S. STOKLEY,
Mayor.

APPENDIX No. 99.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—Your bodies recently sent to the Board of Trustees of the Philadelphia Gas Works, a resolution asking that public lamps be lighted during the year 1880 free of cost. The Trustees gave serious consideration to the suggestion, and were eager, as far as lay in their power, to assist the City Councils in reducing the expenses of the municipal government. Up to within a month or so, prices of material were such that the Board of Trustees calculated for the year 1880, upon paying the expenses of the gas works, paying interest on funded debt, paying sinking fund instalments, and accumulating a surplus of $250,000. Upon arriving at these figures, the Trustees took up the resolution for action.

We have lighted the public lamps during the year 1879, for $22.00 per lamp, or at the rate of fifty cents per thousand feet, while charging private consumers more than four times as much. If all the taxable properties used gas, then, perhaps, the question of reducing to the city or reducing to the private consumer, would be immaterial, as in the end the taxpayer would receive the benefit whichever course was taken, but it so happens that there are 200,000 taxable properties in Philadelphia (70,000 buildings and 130,000 lots) which consume no gas. In justice, then, to the 95,669 properties which do use gas, the Board of Trustees think that their best consumers, the private consumers, should be accorded whatever advantages are to be obtained, and in pursuance of this view, a formal announcement of a reduction to $2.00 per thousand feet, dating from January 1st, 1880, will be made in a few days.

To thus lower rates, the Board must exercise the strictest economy. The cost of retorts have advanced forty per cent. since the Board made the calculations on which the proposed reduction was based, and the price of supplies generally has followed in almost as large proportion as with the retorts. But to go further than a reduction in the price of gas supplied to private consumers and to reduce the charge for lighting the public lamps, is a step which should be attended with the greatest caution. However, as it has been represented to the Trustees that the City Councils have fixed the tax rate for the year 1880, at a figure which, to bring the expenses within the income, as is imperative—will require a compression of one and one-half million dollars in the municipal estimates, and further, that this heavy curtailment could not be effected without some saving in lighting the public lamps, the Trustees of the Gas Works have decided to lower the yearly rate from $22.00 to $18.00 per lamp, thus supplying the city with gas at the rate of thirty-seven cents per thousand feet.

As a matter of information, we would state that the price of gas as reduced will compare favorably with all the large cities, when leakage, cost of distribution, and interest on plant enter materially into the estimate. While the cost of gas during the past four years has ranged from $2.30 to $2.15 per thousand feet, many improvements and extensions have been made. In these years the Board has increased the daily capacity by three million feet and has expended over $700,000 in new works and laying of large mains, all of which will revert to the City of Philadelphia when it shall assume possession of the property.

By order of the Board of Trustees.

THOMAS NOBLE.

APPENDIX No. 119.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,

Philadelphia, December 4, 1879.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I beg to inform the Councils that the Sinking Fund Commissioners have effected the sale of the stock of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, held by the Sinking Fund, to that Company at its par value.

The magnitude of the sale, and the interest always taken in that Company by the citizens, induce the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund to communicate this sale to Councils, though the ordinary sales are not so reported.

There were applications made from elsewhere, and by other parties, for the sale of this stock, but the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund were of the opinion that it would not be used by them in such a manner as to be advantageous to the City, and protective of the interests of the stockholders.

The termination of the City's direct connection with this Company, as its stockholder, induces me to congratulate you on the wisdom and success of the investment, as well, financially, as in its indirect but great benefits to the City, and I trust that the action in this respect will be satisfactory to, and meet the approval of your honorable bodies.

I am, respectfully,

WM. S. STOKLEY,
Mayor.

APPENDIX No. 120.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,

Philadelphia, December 4, 1879.

To the Common Council
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—I herewith return, without my approval, "An Ordinance to authorize the erection of one hundred and sixty gasoline lamps of the Maloney Company's Patent, for the year 1879."

Also, "An Ordinance to authorize the erection of public lamps."

These two ordinances contemplate the erection of a large number of gas and gasoline lamps throughout the City, and if carried into effect, will necessitate the expenditure of a large sum of money next year, which the tax rate fixed by your honorable bodies will not justify. I therefore return the same for your reconsideration.

Yours, very respectfully,

WM. S. STOKLEY,

Mayor.

APPENDIX No. 121.

RESOLUTION

To approve the action of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund in the sale of the Pennsylvania Railroad stock.

Resolved by the Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia, That the action of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund in the sale of the stock held by the said Commissioners to the said Pennsylvania Railroad Company meets with the approval of these Councils.

APPENDIX No. 122.

Philadelphia, December 4, 1879.

JOSEPH L. CAVEN, Esq.,

DEAR SIR:—At the suggestion of the City Treasurer, this Bank, as the agent of the City, through its counsel, submitted to the City Solicitor certain questions with regard to the deduction of tax from the interest on City Loans payable January 1. The City Solicitor's answer in writing is herewith enclosed.

We now have the honor to ask for instructions from Councils as to our action in the premises.

Very respectfully,

LAW DEPARTMENT OF THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA,

Philadelphia, December 3, 1879.

R. L. ASHHURST, Esq.

MY DEAR SIR:—In your communication of November 17, 1879, you put to me three questions, which I answer as follows:

To the First:—There should be deducted from the interest payable in January to loan holders, the tax due the State, except in the case of bonds issued by the City free from tax.

To the Second:—The tax is an annual tax, none of it has been paid; I think, therefore, that the City would only be safe in retaining the whole amount of the tax, namely, four mills.

To the Third:—In my opinion the tax should be computed upon the face or par value of the loans. As you see, I have simply answered your questions, and given you my view of the law, and the precautions which should be taken to keep the City in as safe a position as possible. You ask for instructions to your clients, but these I cannot give you; that power lies with Councils.

Yours, very respectfully,
(Signed) WM. NELSON WEST,
City Solicitor.

APPENDIX No. 168.

LAW DEPARTMENT.

Philadelphia, December 10, 1879.

To the President and Members of Common Council of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—In response to a communication of yesterday, from your clerk, requesting my opinion before 3 o'clock to-day, upon the question whether Councils have the right to reduce the number of assessors to thirty, I have to say as follows:

The Act of Assembly of April 12, 1873 (Purdon's Digest p. 1821), fixes the "pay of assessors of the City of Philadelphia at the rate of two thousand dollars per annum," and directs the Board of Revision to divide the City into fifteen assessment districts, and empowers them to alter and re-arrange those districts, from time to time, when in their judgment such alterations may be rendered necessary by the growth of the City, to preserve equality in the labor to be performed in the respective districts.

They are directed also to appoint two competent persons to serve as assessors for the term of five years in and for each district, and in every appointment every member of the Board must concur.

The Act of Assembly of June 5, 1874 (Pardon's Digest p. 1957) gives the Board of Revision authority, from time to time as the public interest may require, to create additional assessors' districts and appoint additional assessors therein.

It will thus be seen that the legislature directs the Board to make fifteen districts and to appoint thirty assessors, and empowers them when the public interests may require it, to create additional districts and appoint additional assessors, and fixes the pay of assessors at two thousand dollars per annum.

By the first Act the growth of the City was so far taken into consideration, as to induce the legislature to empower the Board, from time to time, to alter and re-arrange the districts of the assessors.

By the Act of 1874, it was contemplated that the public interests might require additional districts and additional assessors, and in such event the Board are given authority to create and appoint the additional districts and assessors.

The Board of Revision are in the best position to judge of the necessity of the exercise of these powers, because the phrase "public interests" in this connection, means the public interest in regard to and as affected by the assessments for taxes, and this branch of the City's affairs is committed by law to the Board.

Of course, these powers and all other powers vested in the Board of Revision, or in any other officials, must be exercised in good faith and for the accomplishment of the purposes for which the powers are given.

If there is a question upon these points, Councils can, through the usual medium of a committee, inform themselves of the situation. The courts would restrain from a reckless or wanton exercise of committed powers.

Councils have no power to lessen or increase the number of assessors, nor to lessen or increase their salaries. The Legislature has regulated both of them, and the Act of May 19, 1874 (Purdon's Digest, p. 1931), which gave to Councils such full power over the officers and departments of the City, exempted from its operation the Board "charged with the revision or regulation of assessments of property."

The Act of May 21, 1879 (P. L., p. 72), which made it the duty of Councils "to fix the salaries and number of clerks and employees and of all persons who are paid their salaries by warrant or otherwise out of the City Treasury," except, among others, those officials "whose salaries are fixed and established as to amount by Act of Assembly of this Commonwealth." Assessors are among this class, as will appear by my citations from the two Acts of Assembly first herein referred to.

I am, very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

WM. NELSON WEST,

City Solicitor.

I furnished Mr. Eckstein with the total figures $1,932,598.10, this A. M.

APPENDIX No. 177.

THE PHILADELPHIA BOARD OF TRADE,

Philadelphia, December 15, 1879.

To the Honorable the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—The following memorial respectfully sheweth: That a meeting of the Philadelphia Board of Trade was held on the evening of the above date, at which the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted, viz.:—

WHEREAS, The commercial interests of Philadelphia require constant telegraphic communication with other cities of the World, and it is of vital importance that such communication shall be prompt, and free as possible from complication; AND WHEREAS, Competition in the telegraphic business of the country will inure to the benefit of the commercial public, who are its principal patrons; therefore Resolved, The Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia be hereby petitioned to prepare and adopt such ordinances as will enable all properly organized telegraphic companies to enter the City of Philadelphia with the same equal rights and privileges for each, and upon such a plan as may least obstruct our streets (the underground system being best adapted to that end), and at the same time furnish the utmost facilities for the transmission of telegraphic communications.

Resolved, That provision be made in such ordinances that the merger, consolidation, or combination of competing lines of telegraph shall operate as a cancellation of all rights and privileges conferred by such ordinances, and also, that provision be made for the repeal of all existing ordinances conflicting therewith.

All which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN WELSH,
President.

GEO. L. BUZBY,
Secretary.

APPENDIX No. 178.

THE PHILADELPHIA BOARD OF TRADE,

Philadelphia, December 15, 1879.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—The following memorial respectfully sheweth :
That a meeting of the Philadelphia Board of Trade was held on the evening of the above date, when the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted, viz. :

WHEREAS, We are informed and believe, that application has been, or is about to be made to your Honorable Body by certain parties claiming to be incorporated as the Keystone Railroad Co., under and by virtue of a certain Act of the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania, dated April 4, 1868 (known as the General Railroad Law), to erect upon the main streets and avenues of this City what is technically known as an elevated railroad ;

AND WHEREAS, This Board of Trade represents a large number of the firms and corporations engaged in fostering and extending the business interests of this City, who, in addition thereto, are large property owners, and contribute extensively to the support of the corporate authority of the City ;

AND WHEREAS, It is the opinion of this board that the erection of elevated passenger railroads upon any of the principal streets of this City is unnecessary to the convenience of the citizens, detrimental to the interests of property holders, and would be a decided nuisance to citizens and property holders, therefore it is

Resolved, That we earnestly petition your Honorable Body to entirely decline to grant permission for the streets to be so occupied by the Keystone Elevated Railroad Company, for the following reasons :

First. Because the law under which the proposed company claims to be incorporated, in its twelfth section especially provides against the organization under it of passenger railway companies, and this is practically such a railway.

Second. Because the same section provides that NO corporation formed "under it shall enter upon and occupy any "street, lane, or alley, in any incorporated City in this Commonwealth, without the consent of such City having been "first obtained."

Third. Because the whole control of this matter is in the hands of your Honorable Body, and the citizens and tax payers look to, and expect you to prevent their principal thoroughfares from being obstructed by the erection of structures which would destroy the value of surrounding private property, and obstruct the view of the magnificent Public Buildings now being erected at the expense of the United States Government and our fellow citizens.

Fourth. Because the construction of the proposed elevated railroad would destroy, as thoroughfares, at least six of the principal streets of the City, which are really under the control of the State, which still retains the right of eminent domain, and no City has the right to allow the obstruction of public thoroughfares, unless compelled to do so by Act of Legislature, and there has been no such Act in this case.

Finally. We reiterate our prayer that you will, by a unanimous vote, refuse to grant the privileges asked for by the Keystone Railroad Company.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

GEO. L. BUZBY, Secretary.

JOHN WELSH, President.

APPENDIX No. 179.

Philadelphia, December 19, 1879.

To the Presidents and Members of the

Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—In compliance with your request, I have examined the charter of "The Keystone Railroad Company," and the law in relation thereto.

The articles of association which constitute its charter, were filed and recorded in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth on the eighteenth day of October last.

They show that the corporation was formed under the Act of Assembly approved April 4, A. D. 1868 [vide Purdon's Digest, pages 1211, 1212, and 1213], for the purpose of constructing a railroad "from Upper Darby Post Office, in Delaware County, in the State of Pennsylvania, beginning at the junction of the Philadelphia and West Chester Turnpike with the Garrettford road to the intersection of Third and Berks streets, in the City of Philadelphia; also, from the junction of Lancaster avenue and Market street to the intersection of Fifty-second street and Elm avenue; also, from the junction of Market street and Woodland avenue or Darby road, to the intersection of said Woodland avenue and Fifty-second street."

The incorporators were Robert B. Esler, William M. Esler, Samuel P. Hutchinson, Benjamin E. Davis, Lynn C. Troutman, Robert H. Tout, Charles E. Henry, Frederick B. Esler, and Edward L. Bodin.

The company seems to have been regularly and properly organized. Its franchises and powers are defined and limited by the Act, under the provisions of which it has been constituted.

The twelfth section of this Act is as follows: "SECTION 12. This Act shall not be so construed as to authorize the formation of street passenger railway companies to construct passenger railways under or by virtue of its provisions in any city or borough of this Commonwealth, nor to authorize any corporation formed under this Act to enter upon and occupy any street, lane, or alley in any incorporated city in this Commonwealth, without the consent of such city having been first obtained."

There is, therefore, not even the semblance of a grant to the company to use the streets of the City, except with your consent; and not even then for the purpose of establishing a street passenger railway, since the Act provides especially that it shall not be construed to avail for any such purpose. There is further protection to the City in the ninth section of the seventeenth article of the new Constitution, which is, that "no street passenger railway shall be constructed within the limits of any city * * * * without the consent of its local authorities."

Therefore, I advise, that without your consent they cannot make use of the streets for a railway of any kind; and further, that they cannot establish a road which will come within the definition of a street passenger railway, either with or without your consent, because it would be beyond their corporate powers, as defined by the Act of Assembly which gives them life.

I am, with great respect, your obedient servant,

WM. NELSON WEST,
City Solicitor.

APPENDIX No. 195.

DEPARTMENT OF CITY CONTROLLER,

Philadelphia, January 1, 1880.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—In compliance with the Act of Assembly consolidating the City of Philadelphia, and also the Act approved April 20th, 1874, the Twenty-sixth Annual Report of the receipts and disbursements for the year 1879 is herewith respectfully submitted. It was my privilege, at the close of the last fiscal year, to congratulate you upon the improved condition of the financial affairs of the City, in the large reduction of the floating debt, but the year just brought to a close presents a period in the history of the City unsurpassed in the number of beneficial enactments and practical results to its monetary affairs. On the first of January, 1879, the ordinance reducing the rate of interest from 6 to 5 per cent. went into operation; and, notwithstanding the lower rate, City warrants commanded a premium of $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{3}{4}$ per cent. and at the same time resulted in a large saving to the City. The 1st of July witnessed the cashing of all pay-roll warrants, and of all warrants of \$50 and under, thus decreasing largely the number of warrants registered for interest, and making a long step in the direction of a cash basis.

In the month of October the outstanding floating indebtedness of the City was funded in a four per cent. loan. This loan, a part of which commanded a premium of one-half per cent., was negotiated and placed upon the market without cost to the City. The system of sinking fund was changed, so as to provide for the absolute payment of a part of the loan annually, instead of trusting to the uncertainty of investment of an annual appropriation to the Commissioners of the Sinking Funds to realize the principal in a given time. In consequence of the high premium the Commissioners of the Sinking Funds have been compelled to pay for the purchase of the 6 per cent. loans, the annual appropriation of $1\frac{2}{10}$ per cent. to the several sinking funds invested will not be sufficient to yield the principal of the loans in 30 years, as was contemplated at the time of the issue of the old loans. The advisability of increasing this appropriation, or enlarging the powers of the Commissioners of the Sinking Funds as to investments, may not be unworthy of your consideration.

On the 2d day of December the Commissioners of the Sinking Funds disposed of 59,149 shares of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's stock, for the sum of $2,957,450, and invested the proceeds in the new 4 per cent. loan.

But above and beyond all other improvements are the benefits that will accrue from a "pay as you go" system that has been inaugurated for future financial government of the City. By it hundreds of thousands of dollars will be saved in the interest account, and the City relieved from the discredit, if not dishonor, of unfulfilled promises to pay.

There is before us a huge debt of $70,970,041.70 that requires annually to be provided out of taxation $4,140,000 in interest, and $807,155 appropriation to the several sinking funds, or a total of $4,947,155, so that future relief from the burdens of a high tax rate is in the gradual reduction of this debt as it annually matures.

The revenues from all sources for the year 1879 were from Receipts.

Compared with the year 1878, the total receipts present an increase of $9,108,954.91. This is due to the receipts from the sale of the 4 per cent. loan, while the receipts from the departments are $15,718.43 less, but the revenues from 1878 were principally derived from a tax-rate of $2.15 on the hundred, while the revenue of 1879 was from a tax-rate of $2.05. Allowing for the difference in the rate, the collections of 1879 are much in excess of the receipts of 1878.

Of the tax levy of 1879 ($10,535,026.57), there was collected $8,928,999.02, to which should be added the amount collected on December 31, 1879, $250,914.06, return of which was not made to the City Treasurer until January 3, 1880, making a total of collections $9,179,913.08, leaving a balance to register of $1,355,113.49, or about 13 per cent. of tax levy uncollected. Heretofore, the average of uncollected taxes has been about 22 per cent.

Of the tax levy of 1878 ($12,139,496.51), there was collected in that year $9,294,264.95, leaving a balance uncollected on January 1, 1879, of $2,845,231.56, or about 23½ per cent. of the levy.

There has been an increase in the following departments and items :

Water Department.....	$43,613 30
Fines and penalties.....	3,772 54
Guardians of the Poor.....	12,469 31
Prison.....	451 23
Sheriff.....	8,860 50

Ice boats.....	11,092 00
Fire Commissioners.....	896 97
Surveys.....	828 25
Register of Wills.....	14,470 15
Port Wardens.....	41 00
Boiler inspection.....	338 56

There was a decrease in the following departments and items :

Highway Department.....	$56,142 40
Health	1,239 47
Markets and City Property.....	4,241 84
Park fund.....	6,449 59
City Treasurer.....	579 00
Dividends on stocks, &c.....	119,746 75
House of Correction.....	6,838 02

The decrease in the Highway Department is due to the abolition of "sewer rents," a source of revenue that formerly yielded $60,000.

Disbursements.

The disbursements are $8,383,331.94 in excess of those of 1878. During the year $10,551,611.51 of the warrants of previous years have been paid. For departments, including Public Buildings, there was paid $6,835,191.65, and if to this be added $1,070,570.81, warrants countersigned for the departments, and yet unpaid, the total cost of the departments, including Public Buildings, for the year 1879, will be $7,905,762.46, an increase over 1878 of $87,048.90. There is a decrease in the item of judgments, executions, &c., of $96,484.24.

Floating Debt.

The outstanding warrants representing a floating debt have regularly appeared as an item in the financial records of the City since consolidation. By the Act of Assembly of June 11, 1879, Councils were empowered to fund the floating indebtedness. The ordinance of October 8, 1879, directed the issue of certificates of loan. In pursuance of its provisions certificates of loan were issued for $10,000,000. It will not, however, require the entire $10,000,000, as the cash balance in the Treasury on January 1, 1880, after receiving $9,124,672, the proceeds of sale of loan, and applying it to the payment of interest and outstanding warrants is $1,853,456.76, and the amount outstanding January 1, 1880, yet to be paid, is $1,294,554.06. If from the cash balance January 1, 1880 ($1,853,456.76) there be deducted

Sinking fund cash balance.....	$194,000 94
and balances not merging, being specific appropriations, and subject to draft in 1880, as follows:—
City Commissioners.....	5,130 46
City Solicitor.....	25,000 00
Fire Commissioners.....	2 000 00
Highways.....	8,959 37
Police.....	5,000 00
Education.....	696 45
Receiver of Taxes.....	274 99
Board of Revision.....	83 50

Loans and Park fund.....	310,680 67
Interest on outstanding warrants.....	10,000 00
	$646,362 00

Leaving a balance of $1,207,094.76 to be applied to the payment of the outstanding warrants as above set forth, $1,294,554.06 of $1,207,094.76, or a difference necessary to pay the entire amount of $87,459.30, so that of the balance of the loan ($887,700), only this amount will be required. There will therefore be an amount of $800,240.70 to be withdrawn, leaving the total amount funded of $9,199,459.30.

I would suggest that the Sinking Fund Commissioners cancel the amount of the 4 per cent. loan held by them to the amount of $800,240.70, and receive the cash for the same from the City Treasurer.

The outstanding warrants remaining unpaid are of the following years:—

1879.....	$1,090,772 03
1878.....	115,834 02
1877.....	5,867 94
1876.....	16,965 45
1875.....	1,002 59
1874.....	4,162 13
1873 and prior.....	59,949 90
Total	$1,294,554 06

It appears there is a large amount of warrants outstanding of 1876 and prior. Interest has long since ceased. Until these warrants are paid they will continue upon the books, representing a floating debt. I would therefore recommend that a Special Committee be appointed to ascertain who are the holders of these warrants, or to take measures to devise such legislation as is required to charge them off the books as a floating debt.

Increase over the debt of January 1, 1879, of.....	429,494 41

While the debt of the City appears on the 1st of January, 1880, with the above increase, yet when the outstanding warrants are paid with the fund now in the Treasury for that purpose, and the $800,240.70 of the four per cent. loan cancelled by the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, the total debt will be $70,169,801, a decrease of $1,665,300.35 over January 1, 1879, and an increase in the fund of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund of the sum cancelled, $800,240.70. This amount of $800,240.70 cash transferred to the Sinking Fund Commissioners will not disturb the cash balance in the Treasury January 1, 1880, but will be paid out of the cash received from the sale of the four per cent. loan between January 1 and 3 of 1880.

Unexpended Balance of Loans.

The unexpended balance of loans, $306,713.81, was, by ordinance of December 31, 1879, placed to the credit of the account of the Sinking Fund Commissioners in the Philadelphia National Bank, to be invested by them, and at the same time made subject to drafts of payments, on account of loans, by departments.

Collection of Water Rents.

In conclusion, I would again respectfully call the attention of Councils to the importance of obtaining such legislation as is requisite to empower the Tax Receiver to collect on the tax bills the water rents, so that when returns are made to this department of the amount of taxes paid, the amount of water rents can be audited at the same time, thus saving much useless expense and increased liability to clerical errors, and allowing the taxpayer to pay all his taxes at the same time and place. .

Also, to the economy of disposing of every city property which does not pay a compensatory revenue beyond the expenses of maintaining it. To the necessity of requiring City passenger railway companies to make return to the City Solicitor of the amount of dividends declared as soon after the declaration of the dividend as is possible, in order to ascertain the amount of tax on the dividend due the City, and to facilitate its collection.

For information in detail connected financially with the operations of the Department of the City Controller, your attention is respectfully invited to the subjoined tables.

The foregoing statement presents no unusual feature. During the period therein embraced the works have been conducted, as hitherto, with due regard to the entire satisfaction of the consumers of gas—an object involving duties sometimes unreasonably construed, and made to imply that companies should not only supply the gas, but should also govern its consumption in individual premises, while the matter respecting the quantity used, and the consequent amount of bill, is directly under the control of every consumer respectively.

A reduction in the price of gas, both in that furnished to the street lamps and in that to private consumers, beginning on the 1st of January, 1880, has been deemed necessary by the trustees, and constitutes a fact alike important to manufacturers and to consumers of the article. The rate to private consumers has been fixed at two dollars per thousand cubic feet, and for that used by the street lamps the charge is fifteen dollars per lamp per annum, including the lighting, cleaning, and extinguishing of the lamps, the expenses of which may be estimated at seven dollars per lamp; thus diminishing the net receipt for the gas supplied, to about eight dollars per lamp. When it is considered how great a proportion of gas these street lamps burn, each consuming about twenty-five thousand cubic feet per annum, of the whole quantity actually produced for sale, it may be safely assumed that the citizens of this district, as well as those of the other portions of the City, where the same rates are charged, are furnished with light of a superior character in every respect, at relatively lower prices than those of any other city in America.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

By order of the Board of Trustees.

WILLIAM P. FODELL,

Secretary.

The quantity of gas manufactured during the year 1879 was 2,180,625,000 cubic feet—an increase of 13,086,000 cubic feet over 1878. The street mains laid during the past year were 37,080 feet, making the entire length of the mains laid through the City, and in use by the Gas Works, 704 $\frac{1}{4}$ miles.

The illuminating powers of the gas manufactured by the Philadelphia Gas Works has been, during the past year, equal to that of sixteen and a quarter candles. They here submit the average illuminating power of gas made at the different works under their charge during the year 1879, reported from tests made by Professor R. E. Rodgers, of the University of Pennsylvania, and Professor Lemuel Stephens, of Girard College, the lowest average in every case being given.

There have been, in addition, expended on the Works now operated by the Trustees, the amounts provided by the ordinance of the 20th of March, 1855, for the purchase of the Spring Garden, Moyamensing, West Philadelphia, and Frankford Gas Works, viz.....	450,000 00
And for the purchase of the Southwark and Moyamensing, Germantown, Manayunk, and Richmond Gas Companies..	300,740 00

Of which there has been paid off, out of the Sinking Fund, the amount of Loans Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8, as they respect- ively fell due	$1,370,000 00
And also the amount of the loan provided by ordinance of March 20, 1855, for the purchase of the Spring Garden, Moyamen- singing, West Philadelphia, and Frankford Gas Works	450,000 00
	1,820,000 00
Leaving amount of loans still due.....	$6,300,740 00
There are now cash securities in the Sinking Fund for the payment of existing loans, being Nos. 9 to 16, inclusive, amounting to	$3,681,376 51
And for the payment of the loan for the Southwark and Moyamensing, German- town, Manayunk, and Richmond Gas Com- panies	209,246 72
	3,890,623 23
Leaving the balance of Gas Loans to be pro- vided for.....	$2,410,116 77

The interest on all outstanding loans is paid out of the annual surplus earnings of the works. Of the aggregate amount now in the various sinking funds, $3,590,623.23 is invested in securities bearing six per cent. interest, and $300,000 in the new four per cent. City loans. The present amount of loans and cash in the Sinking Fund, is sufficient at the above rates of interest, not only to pay off the principal of all the present outstanding loans, borrowed for the construction of the Gas Works, as they respectively fall due, but to leave on January 1st, 1905, when the last of the above loans becomes due, a surplus after their payment of over $2,781,480.

This calculation does not credit the Sinking Funds with the two per cent. on the amount of outstanding loans, required by the ordinances to be laid aside every year for the Sinking Funds, which will, of course, largely swell the above amount.

The Sinking Fund, for the redemption of the loan created for the purchase of the Southwark and Moyamensing, Germantown, Manayunk, and Richmond Gas Companies' stock, to $300,740, is included in the foregoing statement. The amount of this special Sinking Fund is $209,246.72.

The net profits of the Works during the past year were $142,916.31, making a total amount of accumulated profits up to the end of the year 1879, $3,331,434.15.

These results show, that under the forty-five years' management of the City's works, gas has been supplied to the citizens at a lower price than gas of a similar quality, to any other City of equal size in the United States; while out of the surplus profits, contributed during this time altogether by private consumers, the Works themselves have been constructed, in which there has been invested in actual cash, over eleven millions of dollars; and which, exclusive of the rise of value of real estate on which they stand, represent an investment worth to-day considerably more than double their original cost. These Works, which could not now be replaced for much less than $25,000,000, are subject to outstanding loans, all of which will be paid off by the year 1905 out of the accretions alone of the Sinking Funds now in hand, and leave a surplus besides of over $2,781,480.

The history of the enterprises for supplying gas to the different cities of the United States, has long since shown that competition in its manufacture has only resulted in increasing the cost of gas to the consumer. It was pointed out by a former report, that its manufacture differs from that of other commodities, because its sale is confined to the district which the Works supply. The gas manufacturer has also, at first, to invest an immense capital in gas mains, and connections, extending to the outskirts of the district to be supplied; and this expenditure is not repaid by the sale of gas for many years; in many cases never.

The Philadelphia Gas Works were commenced in 1835, on a smaller scale than would now be required for a village. The ordinance of the 21st of March, 1835, incorporating a gas company in Philadelphia, provided for Works, on a scale competent to produce seventy-five thousand cubic feet (of gas) daily. The annual production of the first works, was less than the amount of gas consumed on the three nights of the 21st, 22d, and 23d of December, 1879. In the following year, $150,000 was borrowed to enlarge the Works, to the payment of which the credit of the City was pledged. Two years afterwards the consumption of gas had more than quadrupled, and a second loan of $200,000 was made. From this time until 1851, various loans of comparatively small amount were obtained for the enlargement and extension of the Works, aggregating $1,370,000. During this interval, the consumption of gas had become over thirty times as great as it was in 1836; the total number of private burners in the City at that year, being less than three thousand, while in 1851, there were a hundred and thirty-six thousand. All the loans created up to that year (1851), have been since paid off, the eighth loan having been paid off on the 1st of January, 1872; and all out of the surplus profits realized up to that time (1872), from the sale of gas to private consumers.

Several independent private gas companies, prior to 1854, had been constructed in the old districts that now form the City, and which, after the consolidation in 1854, were purchased under ordinances of Councils, by the Board of Trustees. In this way, the Works of the Spring Garden, Moyamensing, West Philadelphia, Frankford, and the Southwark and Moyamensing, the Germantown, the Manayunk, and the Richmond Companies—eight corporations in all—were purchased from time to time for $750,740, of which $450,000 has been since paid off; and at present, all the Works in the County excepting those of the Northern Liberties, are now operated by the Trust.

In addition to the first eight loans which, as already stated, were paid off, out of the sale of gas to the citizens, there have also been invested in the Works, all the profits that have been realized from their management.

From the time of the consolidation, to 1861, all the surplus profits realized by the Trust, and one million five hundred thousand (1,500,000) dollars of loans, besides, were applied to the enlargement of the Gas Works, and the laying of additional mains for its distribution throughout the county; but in 1861 the extension of the City, and the immense increase of the consumption of gas, which had risen to over three times what it was in 1851, required the construction of entirely new Works. The money already raised by Loans Nos. 10 and 11, one million (1,000,000) dollars in the aggregate, was used to construct Works at Point Breeze.

In 1864, the increase of the City rendered it necessary to double these Works, which now have a capacity of over three million (3,000,000) cubic feet of gas in twenty-four hours, and Loan No. 12, of one million (1,000,000) dollars, was applied to this purpose.

At the time of the consolidation, the principal Gas Works were at Twenty third and Market streets, and by continual additions to these Works the Trust continued to supply the central portion of the City with gas until 1871, when it became necessary to remove the older Works, and construct a gasometer there capable of holding a million cubic feet of gas, together with a retort house of a capacity of nine hundred retorts. The present producing capacity of these Works is five millions of cubic feet of gas in twenty-four hours, which owing to want of further space in this quarter of the City, is probably their extreme limit. In 1877, the continued steady growth of the City, in spite of the recent financial depression, again required the construction of new Gas Works, and two new gasometers, of a capacity of one million cubic feet each, together with additional Works, have recently been constructed in the Twenty-fifth Ward, at Tioga street, on the Delaware, about three squares above the Richmond coal wharves. The mains from these Works connect with the entire system of gas mains of the rest of the City. It is proposed to continue the extension of these Works until they eventually have a producing capacity of nine millions of cubic feet daily. This is about the average daily consumption of the whole City, which including leakage, is about 5,900,000 cubic feet a day, throughout the year. During the months of November, December, and January, however, the average consumption, including leakage, is much higher, amounting to 8,050,000 cubic feet daily; the present total producing capacity of the Works is about 10,000,000 cubic feet daily, and the maximum consumption of gas in any twenty-four hours during the past year was 9,762,000 cubic feet, which was on the night of the 22d of December.

The cost of the various Works, mains and apparatus at present operated by the Trust is $11,245,288, the annual interest on which, at six per cent., is $674,717. Had these Works been constructed by a private corporation, this amount of annual interest on the investment would have to be first earned before any dividends could be declared among the corporators. To raise this amount at present, by the sale of gas, would require an additional payment of fifty-one cents per thousand feet by every private consumer, which, added to the rate for the past year, $2.15, would make $2.66 per thousand feet.

The cost of the construction of the Philadelphia Gas Works, however, has been defrayed from time to time, out of their accumulated profits, and from loans, for the payment of which the sinking funds have been provided out of the sale of the gas itself. These sinking funds have been raised exclusively from the sale of gas to private consumers who, when existing loans are paid off, will have contributed the total cost of the Gas Works to the City.

The following table shows the amount of money at present invested in the Works :

(1). The first eight loans, all now paid off out of the accumulations of the profits of the Works, from 1836 to 1872	$1,370,000 00
(2). Profits accumulated over and above the various sinking funds provided for the payment of loans.....	3,331,431 15

Which represents the actual investment in cash in the Philadelphia Gas Works up to the present time.

On about only one-fifth of the cost of this investment is any annual interest required to be defrayed by the consumer, namely, on the amount of outstanding loans, less the sinking funds on hand, for its payment, or on about $2,410,116.77.

The remaining four-fifths of the cost of the investment is practically enjoyed by the citizens without charge for interest.

This represents an aggregate reduction in fixed charges of $516,000 per annum, which is equivalent to 39 cents per thousand feet.

Of the total amount of gas annually consumed about one-fifth is supplied to the public lamps of the municipality. The total number of public lamps at present is twelve thousand two hundred and fifty-two.

Had the City paid the same price as the private consumer, and the same profit be realized from it as from citizens who use gas, it would have enabled the Trust to further reduce the price of gas to each consumer thirty-two cents per thousand below the present reduction, or to one dollar and sixty-eight cents per thousand cubic feet in the place of $2.00 for the coming year. This would have amounted to a reduction of over 21 per cent., or more than one-fifth in the price of gas charged during the past year.

Allowing for the fact that the public light of the municipality is furnished at about one-third of its actual cost, the price of gas to the private consumer, now charged in Philadelphia, is less than that of any city of considerable size in the country. The only cities where gas is supplied at a cheaper rate than in Philadelphia are those situated near the bituminous coal fields, such as Cincinnati and Pittsburg, where the cost of gas coal is reduced almost to the price of the labor required to dig it from the ground. In the City of Cincinnati, however, the charge to consumers is as high as one dollar and ninety cents per thousand feet, while one dollar and sixty cents is charged for the public lamps for gas of from fifteen and a half to sixteen candle power. The gas is there furnished to the municipality on substantially the same terms as to the ordinary citizen, as a somewhat smaller amount is required to defray the lighting and service of the public lamps than to examine and keep in order the individual metres, etc., of the citizens at large. Were gas furnished to the public lamps here on these terms, gas could, as above stated, be supplied to the citizens at $1.68 per thousand feet, or nearly 22 cents cheaper than in Cincinnati, which is situated as favorably as any City in the United States as regards its supply of coal.

In conclusion, the Board desire to express their acknowledgments to the executive officers of the Trust for the faithful manner in which they have discharged their respective duties. By order of the Trustees.

President.

ENGINEER'S REPORT.

To the Trustees of the Philadelphia Gas Works.

GENTLEMEN :—I have the honor to present the forty-fifth annual report of the condition of the works, together with a detailed statement of the operations for the year 1879.

The total amount of gas made during the year was 2,180,625,000 cubic feet, it being an increase in quantity as compared with that made during the year 1878 of 13,086,000 cubic feet, making the total product of the works since their erection 30,640,468,000 cubic feet.

The amount manufactured at the different stations was as follows :

	Cubic feet.
Gas made at Twenty-sixth Ward Works.....	690,935,000
Gas made at the Ninth Ward Works.....	908,381,000
Gas made at the Fifteenth Ward Works.....	181,602,000
Gas made at Twenty-first Ward Works.....	33,054,000
Gas made at Twenty-fifth Ward Works.....	366,650,000
Total	2,180,625,000

The maximum consumption of gas in twenty-four hours was 9,762,000 feet, which occurred on the night of the 22d of December.

The maximum production of gas in twenty-four hours was 8,892,000 cubic feet.

The annexed statement shows the quantity of materials used in the manufacture and purification of gas :

In Twenty-third Ward.....	47
In Twenty-fourth and Twenty seventh Wards.....	240
	<hr/>
In all.....	1,399
	<hr/>

Adding these to the total number before in use makes the total number 96,828.

The applications for gas registered during the year have been :

At the Seventh street office.....	8,127
At the Spring Garden office.....	6,096
At the Twenty-first Ward office.....	310
At the Twenty-second Ward office.....	476
At the Twenty-third Ward office.....	403
At the Twenty-seventh Ward office.....	1,432
Total	16,844

Deducting removals and discontinuances amounting to 15,447, shows an increase of 1,397, which added to former number of consumers, makes the total number now on the books of the Trust 97,838.

The lights added during the year, were

In old City.....	7,362
In Spring Garden and Penn.....	15,411
In Southwark.....	1,208
In Moyamensing.....	2,813
In Richmond.....	484
In Kensington.....	3,533

In Twenty-second Ward.....	1,366
In Twenty-third Ward.....	1,209
In Twenty-fourth and Twenty-seventh Wards.....	6,740
	42,122
Previously in use.....	1,419,395
Total	1,461,517

There are now under the charge of the Trust 11,770 public lamps supplied with gas from these works, and 482 from the Northern Liberties Works, making a total of 12,252.

37,080 feet of street mains were laid during the year, making the entire length of mains belonging to the Trust 3,719,381 feet, or 704 $\frac{1}{4}$ miles.

Owing to the insufficient supply of gas to the consumers in the upper portion of the Twenty-second Ward, as alluded to in last year's report, by your late Chief Engineer, it was found necessary to lay an 8-inch main leading from the holder, at Germantown, along the line of Wister Street, Chew Street, and Gorgas Lane, to Main Street, a distance of 13,571 feet, there connecting with the mains leading to Chestnut Hill, which has given entire satisfaction, and allayed all complaints from that locality.

A detailed statement of the operations of the works for the past and each preceding year, will be found in the annexed tabular statement.

It affords me pleasure to state, that the management of the officers in charge of the different departments of the works, has been entirely satisfactory.

Yours respectfully,

WILLIAM K. PARK,

Chief Engineer.

Philadelphia, January 29, 1880.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN :—Your Special Committee, to whom was referred the communication of John and James Dobson, dated November 6, 1879, relative to a suit in equity, lately brought by the Park Commissioners in the name of the City, wherein it is sought to restrain the Messrs. Dobson from their right to drainage to the Schuylkill river, beg to report that they have visited the locality, carefully investigated the cause of complaint as well as the remedies which have been applied, and find that a large sum of money has been expended successfully to prevent the flow into the river, of what was formerly a nuisance ; we are fully satisfied that the Messrs. Dobson are ready to continue the improvements, and extend the same until every vestige of complaint shall be removed. We also find, that if the Park Commissioners were successful in their present efforts, that it would work most serious injury, loss, and inconvenience, to one of the largest and most important of all our industries, an establishment covering many acres of ground, employing nearly three thousand persons, and supporting over six thousand of the inhabitants of our City, with an active capital of hundreds of thousands of dollars, manufacturing over four millions dollars worth of goods per annum, paying nearly a million of dollars in wages per annum, and over ten thousand dollars per annum in taxes to the City ; we also find, that in consequence of a complaint made in 1876, that this firm has since made extensive alterations in their drainage system, and so important did Councils consider this interest, that in 1876, after the City Solicitor had commenced an action to restrain all the manufactories on the Schuylkill river, between the Fairmount Dam and Manayunk, from draining into the river, that they passed a resolution [See Appendix of Common Council, No. 117, of Vol. 2, of 1876], directing the City Solicitor to suspend further action in the suit against these people, until the further order of Councils. Yet, notwithstanding the said resolution, the Park Commissioners have commenced this suit. While your Committee desire further opportunities to make other examinations relative to this subject, yet they deem it of sufficient importance to make this report with a view to the passage of the accompanying resolution of request to the Park Commissioner and City Solicitor, in order that they may stay further proceedings, until we make our final report. We, therefore, respectfully ask the passage of resolution annexed.

RESOLUTION

Of request to the Commissioners of Fairmount Park, and the City Solicitor, relative to suit in equity against John and James Dobson.

Resolved by the Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia, That the Commissioners of Fairmount Park be, and they are, hereby respectfully requested to stay proceeding, in the equity suit now pending in our Court of Common Pleas No. 2, against Messrs. John and James Dobson, until the further action of these Councils, in order that a full investigation may be made, and, if necessary, additional improvements, if possible, be devised to remedy any evil that may be complained of, and that the City Solicitor be, and he is, hereby requested to take such steps as in his judgment will best accomplish the object of this resolution.

APPENDIX No. 206.

Philadelphia, February 5, 1880.

To the President and Members of Common Council.

GENTLEMEN:—Three years ago I sent a pledge to your honorable body, promising to advocate open meetings of the Board of Trustees of the Philadelphia Gas Works.

I did this in good faith, and have honestly striven to conform to the promise. I must say, however, that there is a reasonable ground for the belief that the City of Philadelphia would lose by publicity being given to the proceedings.

The gas works is purely a manufacturing concern, and unlike any other branch of the City government, it resembles a private business. And who will say that any manufacturing concern which exposes its workings, so that contractors might form combinations to regulate the prices of its supplies, could be as economically administered as when placed in trustworthy hands to be managed for the greatest possible profit to the public?

What the Gas Trust has done was shown in the annual report submitted to you last week. The securities now on hand will yield a surplus of over two million dollars, after paying the principal of all the gas loans now outstanding.

The works are operated so economically that gas is supplied to the City at one-third the actual cost price, and is supplied to private consumers at a rate as cheap as in any large city in America. If City Councils paid what is charged to private consumers, as all other municipalities do, gas could be supplied to private consumers at rates far below those charged even in those large cities which are located in the heart of the bituminous coal fields, and which are consequently not burdened with the freight on coal. These are facts which cannot be controverted. While the opening of the doors might possibly result in loss to the City in advanced prices for supplies, and while it is a notorious fact that the demand for open doors is started and engineered for political capital, livening up as election approaches, and slumbering during the intervals, yet as the doings of the Gas Trust will bear the broadest possible scrutiny, and as the details of its management are fully set forth in the annual reports submitted to you, I am not willing, and have not been willing, to antagonize myself to the expressed wish of the public for open doors. In deference, therefore, to that sentiment, I desire to reassure you that I will use every endeavor to secure the utmost publicity to their proceedings.

Returning thanks to Common Council, which has twice honored me by election to the Board of Trustees Philadelphia Gas Works, I remain

Your obedient servant,

THOS. J. SMITH.

OFFICE OF COMMISSIONERS OF FAIRMOUNT PARK,
Philadelphia, February 19, 1880.

To the Select and Common Councils
of the City of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN:—The Commissioners of Fairmount Park respectfully invite your attention to the accompanying papers relative to the removal of the railroad tracks and the opening of Pennsylvania avenue to the public as one of the main approaches to the Park.

By order of the Commissioners,
WM. S. STOKLEY,
President.

OFFICE OF COMMISSIONERS OF FAIRMOUNT PARK.

Philadelphia, February 14, 1880.

At a meeting of the Commissioners of Fairmount Park, held this day, the following resolution was adopted, viz.:

Resolved, That the President memorialize the Councils, that if consistently with a just consideration of the rights of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, they can insist upon an abandonment of Pennsylvania avenue by that road, for the concessions now asked at Ninth and Green streets, said avenue would be most invaluable as an approach to Fairmount Park, and that with said memorial the report of the Superintendent to the Committee on Plans and Improvements be transmitted.

Attest:

R. W. ROBBINS,
Secretary.

FAIRMOUNT PARK,

OFFICE OF SUPERINTENDENT,

Philadelphia, February 9, 1880.

HON. JOHN WELSH,

Chairman of the Committee on Plans and Improvements Park Commission.

DEAR SIR:—The following remarks, which have been suggested by a comparison of the European Parks and Fairmount Park, are respectfully submitted for the consideration of the Committee.

All the great parks of Europe are so planned that either in the parks themselves, or in their approaches, there are extensive promenades where pedestrians, equestrians, and carriages may be all concentrated, and may pass by each other in review, and I particularly observed that these places, wherever they might be, seemed to be the fashionable centres of attraction, and the most popular resorts.

On fine afternoons in Hyde Park, London, Rotten Row and the drive is always thronged with horses and carriages. In Paris the broad avenue of the Champs Elysees is always crowded. Under like conditions, and in the Prater, at Vienna, the broad avenue, with its contiguous rides and promenades, presents a sight of animated life which must be seen to be appreciated.

I am firmly impressed with the belief that some similar place should be provided in Fairmount Park, or in the approaches to it, and I respectfully suggest that such a place could be created and an improvement made in the City of Philadelphia which would far surpass anything of the kind yet attempted in this country, and would make Fairmount Park the most perfect and complete park in the world. I refer to the removal of the railway from Pennsylvania avenue, and the opening to the public of that fine avenue from Broad street to the park.

Were the tracks removed from Pennsylvania avenue, and the avenue laid out and improved precisely as the "Avenue Louise," which leads to the Bois de la Cambre, the great park of Brussels, eventually it would undoubtedly be one of the finest of boulevards. It would be built upon either side with fine and desirable residences, and would furnish a promenade for vehicles and pedestrians and equestrians, leading from the heart of the great City to its great pleasure ground, and would be in every way worthy of the City and the beautiful creation to which it led. I may also suggest that the railway could be abandoned from the Columbia bridge to Broad street, and the railroad business which now passes down Pennsylvania avenue to Broad, crossing all the streets, including Broad street, at very dangerous grade crossings, might with great advantage be taken over the stone bridge at the Falls of Schuylkill to Ninth and Green streets, when the City could permit the railway company to build their depot occupying Ninth street (which, indeed, they do at present), and concentrate their business at that point. It may be considered premature to take any action tending to an accomplishment of this design at present, but I am of the opinion that it is a very important matter, and one which is worthy some serious consideration. I bring this subject before the Committee at the present time, as I have noticed that the Reading Railroad Company have been conferring with the City relative to the occupancy of Ninth street, and on that account it seemed to be an opportune moment to consider the matter.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully,

your obedient servant,

RUSSELL THAYER,

Superintendent of Park.

Hose.

At present there is in use at the different stations about 35,000 feet of hose of all kinds; of this quantity about 18,000 feet can be relied on in case of emergency. The balance, known in the department as the "White Diamond" brand, being old, worn-out, and unfit for use, should be retired at the earliest possible moment. To thoroughly equip a department such as ours would require at least 50,000 feet of good reliable hose. This would give to each company two full cylinders, enabling them to give the hose that necessary care and attention which is required to keep it in a serviceable condition.

Telegraph.

The present method of conveying alarms is so faulty and uncertain that it is hardly worthy the name of "Telegraph," as it is understood by the public. The boxes are unreliable, sparsely scattered, and utterly worthless. The whole system is so completely run down for the want of either the necessary repair or good management, that it is almost worse than useless. In numerous instances it would have been far better to have waited for the light of the burning building than to have depended on the bungling alarms transmitted, which have sent the companies in an entirely opposite direction to the fire. So uncertain has it become that the men now wait for several rounds from the box before starting, preferring to remain in the house rather than go several miles out of the direction of the flames. This is a matter which calls for immediate attention, and the sooner a new system of giving alarms is adopted the sooner great conflagrations will be avoided.

Apparatus.

The department has had in use a "Babcock Chemical Engine," belonging to the Consolidated Fire Extinguisher Company. Of its merits it is hardly necessary to speak. Its practicability and usefulness has been fully demonstrated by the few times it has been used. It has fulfilled all that its most sanguine friends predicted. Quick and effectual, it accomplishes its purpose, and it is an invaluable adjunct to this department.

Ladders.

The extreme altitude of the modern built buildings in the mercantile and manufacturing districts of the city necessitates the use of an extremely long ladder to reach the upper stories and roofs. The longest truck ladder in use in the department is forty-five feet. Now, as the altitude of modern buildings is from sixty to seventy-five feet, it will readily be seen how inefficient we are in respect to ladders. There should be an extension ladder, running not more than seventy-five feet, which could be used without trouble at any time.

Water Supply.

The present water supply is very deficient, particularly in the mercantile district of our City. Half a century ago when the water mains were laid, and the fire plugs inserted, the supply was probably deemed sufficient for all practical purposes in times of fire, but since then times have changed. Instead of the usual three or four story store, of moderate depth, we have stores and warehouses of immense proportions. In case of fires the small mains and few plugs furnish but a very limited supply of water. A radical change in this respect is of vital importance, and I would ask that the Commission interest themselves in this matter before it is brought to their notice by some serious conflagration, which this department will be unable to control by reason of a deficient water supply.

Fuel Wagons.

There are six fuel wagons in the departments, each capable of carrying two tons of engine coal, for use in case of large fires, where more fuel is required than is carried by the engines:

One stationed at headquarters, No. 1328 Race street.

One stationed at station No. 10, No. 810 Morris street.

One stationed at station No. 26, No. 1011 Hamilton street.

One stationed at station No. 27, No. 2202 Columbia avenue.

One stationed at station "C," No. 1708 Frankford avenue.

One stationed at station "E," corner of Twentieth and Hand streets."

Fires.

The accompanying statement shows that the whole number of fires attended by this department during the past year was seven hundred and forty-two (742), with a loss of property amounting to one million three hundred and seventy-three thousand nine hundred and twenty (1,373,920) dollars, which, by a comparison with the previous year, shows a decrease of six (6) fires, and an increased loss of property of thirty-one thousand two hundred and twenty-seven (31,227) dollars. The losses, as near as can be ascertained, are covered by insurances amounting to five million eight hundred and sixty thousand six hundred and sixty (5,860,660) dollars.

In Conclusion.

I would tender my thanks to the officers and members of the Department for their efficiency and discipline during the past year. Never were men called to perform more arduous and hazardous duty as firemen, and never were the alarms more cheerfully and promptly responded to. To all of them I return my heartfelt thanks.

To the Assistant Engineers I would also tender my sincere thanks. On no occasion during the year last past was there cause to find fault with a single one of my Assistants. Cheerful, intrepid, and fearless of danger, they were always to the front. Never shrinking from the most desperate position on the fire-ground, they deserve an especial mention in my report.

I also desire to return my sincere thanks to Captain Stillman, of the "Insurance Patrol," and to his efficient company for their invaluable assistance during the past year. Ever on the alert, they are quick on the fire-ground. Proceeding quietly with their work of protecting property, they render all the assistance in their power. Extremely reliable, they are a credit to their calling, and a valuable help to this Department.

I would also return thanks to James S. Thompson, the efficient Fire Marshal, who has, at all times, and in every manner, assisted on the fire-ground. Kind, courteous, and intelligent, his valuable assistance will always be appreciated: His Honor, William S. Stokley, Mayor, S. Irvin Given, and the officers and men under him, for the prompt assistance on the fire-ground. And to the President and Members of the Fire Commission, I offer to each of you my thanks for the many acts of kindness done, and the valuable suggestions offered to me in our official relations, and I trust that my efforts to protect the property of my fellow-citizens may merit the favor I receive, and the confidence which has been so fully reposed in me.

Very respectfully,

JNO. R. CANTLIN,

Chief Engineer.

To the Select and Common Councils

GENTLEMEN:—Your attention is respectfully directed to “An Ordinance to authorize the Loan and Transfer Agent of the City to pay the interest on certain loans,” approved November 9, 1872, which provides “that whenever, from time to time, the principal of any of the aforesaid loans belonging to the Grover Trust shall become due and payable, the Fiscal Agent of the City is authorized and instructed to issue in payment therefor certificates of New Loan of the City of Philadelphia, bearing six per cent. interest for the respective amounts to be made out in the name of the Thomas D. This ordinance should be repealed, as there is no six per cent. loan, or any others which could be so applied, and I would suggest that prompt attention be given to the subject.

I am, very respectfully,

Mayor.
